

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION FOR
THE PRO HAC VICE ADMISSION

OF: RYAN A. SHORES

S. Ct. BA No. 2013-_____

RE: SUPER CT. CIV. NO.
SX-2013-CV-143

PETITION FOR ADMISSION PRO HAC VICE OF RYAN A. SHORES

Comes now Joel H. Holt, who is an active member of the Virgin Islands Bar in good standing, and hereby respectfully moves for the admission of Ryan A. Shores in accordance with Virgin Islands Supreme Court Rule 201. In support of this petition, it is respectfully submitted as follows:

1. Ryan A. Shores of the Washington, D.C. office of Hunton & Williams has been requested by Diageo USVI, Inc. to represent its interests in a pending case filed against it in the Superior Court of the Virgin Islands, Alleyne v. Cruzan Viril, Ltd and Diageo USVI, Inc., Civ. No. SX 13-CV-143. This case involves alleged damages due to the emission of ethanol from the rum distilling operations of the defendants.
2. Ryan A. Shores is a specialist in coordinating national litigation for clients who need such services, which the client retaining him here is in need of, as will be discussed herein.
3. Joel H. Holt is local counsel for Diageo USVI, Inc. in that case and has personally met with Ryan A. Shores before filing this motion.
4. Attached as Exhibit A is the affidavit of Joel H. Holt as required by the rules of this Court, which is submitted in support of this motion. As noted therein, it is respectfully submitted that Ryan A. Shores is a person of good moral character and high professional standing and possesses all of the qualifications required to practice law in the U.S. Virgin Islands.

5. Ryan A. Shores has completed the required "Pro Hac Vice Application" that is attached hereto as Exhibit B in furtherance of this Petition, in accordance with the Rules of the Supreme Court of the Virgin Islands.
6. As stated in the attached Application, Attorney Shores has never been the subject of any disbarment or suspension in any jurisdiction.
7. In accordance with Superior Court Rule 201(a)(4), all bar membership fees have been paid, including $200 in dues to the Virgin Islands Bar Association and $632 in business license fees to the Virgin Islands Department of Licensing and Consumer Affairs, as evidenced by the receipts attached hereto as part of Group Exhibit C.
8. The Government of the Virgin Islands Department of Licensing and Consumer Affairs issued a business license to Attorney Shores on August 19, 2013, which will be valid through August 31, 2014 attached hereto as Exhibit D.
9. While Ryan A. Shores has not previously been admitted pro hac vice in any case in this jurisdiction, other attorneys from his law firm, Hunton & Williams, have been admitted in the past as noted in the attachment to counsel's affidavit.¹ See Exhibit A.
10. This disclosure is being made because of the language in Rule 201 stating that "No attorney or law firm may appear pro hac vice in more than a total of three cases." (Emphasis added). The law firm of Hunton & Williams has never been admitted pro hac vice, but individual lawyers in its firm have been admitted, as noted, in certain specialty areas such as environmental law and bankruptcy matters. See Exhibit A.

11. It is respectfully submitted that the “or law firm” language in Rule 201 is intended to apply to the admissions of law firms (and not individual lawyers, as contemplated by example by LRCi 83 (6) of the District Court of the Virgin Islands), so that the fact that other members of Hunton & Williams have been admitted over the years is irrelevant to this petition.² Indeed, the pro hac vice checklist and questionnaire inquires about previous admissions of the individual applicant and does not inquire about the other admissions of the applicant’s law firm.

12. However, if this language in Rule 201 is intended to apply to the number of admissions of a lawyer and his firm, then Ryan A. Shores would have exceeded the number of pro hac vice admissions allowed under this rule. If Rule 201 is construed so as to count admissions of other firm members so that Ryan A. Shores cannot meet the limitation of three appearances as provided in Rule 201, then the petitioner respectfully requests this Court to consider a special waiver of the provisions of Rule 201. In this regard, this Court specifically addressed this issue in In the Matter of the Application of Payton, 2009 V.I. Supreme LEXIS 17 (VI Supreme Court 2009)(unpublished opinion).

13. In support of this alternate request that this provision of Rule 201 be waived in this case for Ryan A. Shores, it is respectfully pointed out that Hunton & Williams is Diageo's coordinating national counsel for these emissions issues, which includes cases in other jurisdictions with related regulatory and environmental issues. The client has invested significant time and money in that firm's work on these related matters in order to coordinate these cases. Thus, it is respectfully requested that the equitable waiver of the "three admission rule" be waived here if it is deemed to apply to this application.

14. Indeed, this case involves unique legal issues for Diageo USVI, Inc., as the same issues raised in the underlying litigation involve other distillery operations in other locations, including one pending in another jurisdiction (Kentucky) against a related entity. Like the Plaintiffs have done, Diageo has retained national counsel to coordinate the two cases, which services cannot be performed by Joel H. Holt, a sole practitioner who only practices in the Virgin Islands. See Exhibit A

15. Thus, it is respectfully submitted that the facts in this case support a waiver of the three appearance limitation in Rule 201 for Ryan A. Shores because of these special circumstances if Rule 201 is construed to also include prior admissions of other attorneys in the same firm.

16. As such, it is respectfully requested that the equitable waiver of the "three admission rule" be waived here if it is deemed to apply to this application, as valid and extraordinary reasons to justify departing from the "three admission" rule, if it applies, are present here.

17. A proposed Order granting pro hac vice admission is attached hereto as Exhibit E.

WHEREFORE, Defendant, Diageo USVI, Inc., by undersigned counsel, Joel H. Holt, respectfully requests that this Honorable Court approve the pro hac vice admission of Attorney Ryan A. Shores.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION FOR
THE PRO HAC VICE ADMISSION

OF: RYAN A. SHORES,

S. Ct. BA No. 2013-_____

RE: SUPER CT. CIV. NO. SX-
2013-CV-143

AFFIDAVIT JOEL H. HOLT IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR ADMISSION PRO HAC VICE

I, Joel Holt, Esq., being duly sworn hereby state as follows:

1. I am an adult resident of St. Croix and am familiar with the facts asserted herein.
2. I am an attorney currently in good standing and an active member of the Virgin Islands Bar Association.
3. I have filed a petition for the admission of Ryan A. Shores, Esq. pro hac vice before this Court and submit this affidavit in support of this petition.
4. Ryan A. Shores of the Washington, D.C. office of Hunton & Williams has been requested by Diageo USVI, Inc. to represent its interests in a pending case filed against it in the Superior Court of the Virgin Islands, Alleyne v. Cruzan Viril, Ltd and Diageo USVI, Inc., Civ. No. SX 13-CV-143, in which I am local counsel of record. This case involves alleged damages due to the emission of ethanol from the rum distilling operations of the defendants.
5. Ryan A, Shores is a specialist in coordinating national litigation for clients such as Diageo, who has retained his services for this specialized purpose.
6. I personally met with Ryan A. Shores before filing this motion and I find him to be a person of good moral character and high professional standing who possesses all of the qualifications required to practice law in the U.S. Virgin Islands.

7. While Ryan A. Shores has not previously been admitted pro hac vice in any case in this jurisdiction, research by his office indicates that other attorneys from his law firm, Hunton & Williams, have been admitted in the past as per the attached schedule.
8. This disclosure is being made because of the language in Rule 201 stating that "No attorney or law firm may appear pro hac vice in more than a total of three cases." (Emphasis added). Based on his firm's research, the law firm of Hunton & Williams has never been admitted pro hac vice, but individual lawyers in its firm have been admitted, as noted.
9. This case involves unique legal issues for Diageo USVI, Inc., as the same issues raised in the underlying litigation involve other distillery operations in other locations, including one pending in another jurisdiction (Kentucky) against a related entity, so that the coordination of the two cases requires national counsel, which Ryan Shores performs for Diageo and which services cannot be performed by me, a sole practitioner who only practices in the Virgin Islands.
10. For the foregoing reasons and for reasons set forth in Ryan A. Shores, Esq. affidavit and questionnaire, I respectfully request his admission be permitted.
