PLAINTIFF/COUNTERCLAIM DEFENDANT WALEED HAMED'S
RESPONSES TO FATHI YUSUF'S REQUESTS TO PRODUCE 1-20 TO HAMED

Objection to all of the following:

This discovery is limited to the Revised Claims set forth by the parties pursuant to the direction of the Special Master. All discovery must, therefore, relate to or be calculated to lead to discoverable evidence as to one of the Claims set forth. Yusuf does not identify the claims to which inquiries relate -- and many do not relate to any of the remaining Revised Claims. Hamed answers all requests subject to this objection. (In Hamed's discovery each item is related to the specific claim.) No documents withheld.

RFPD 1. For every asset, identified in response to Interrogatory No. 1, produce all documents relating to same from September 17, 2006 to present.

Response: Object: (1) overly broad, (2) not related to any claim as this appears to be a renewed effort to resurrect the "lifestyle" analysis that Judge Brady rejected. See Brady decision: Hamed v. Yusuf, et al.; SX-12-CV-370; SX-14-278; SX-14-287 Memorandum Opinion and Order Re Limitations on Accounting, July 21, 2017, at pp. 23-24.

As part of the accounting and distribution phase of the Wind Up, Yusuf submitted to the Master the report of accountant Fernando Scherrer of the accounting firm BDO, Puerto Rico, P.S.C. (BDO Report). Yusuf contends that this report constitutes a comprehensive accounting of the historical partner withdrawals and reconciliation for the time period 1994-2012." See Opposition to Motion to Strike BDO Report, filed October 20, 2016. However, the BDO report, by its own terms, appears to be anything but comprehensive. Most tellingly, the body of the BDO Report itself contains a section detailing its own substantial "limitations," resulting from the absence or inadequacy of records for each of the grocery stores covering various periods during the life of the partnership.<sup>25</sup> See Plaintiff's Motion to Strike BDO Rep't, Exhibit 1, at 22.

Additionally, the analysis presented in the report rests on the unsupported assumption that any monies identified in excess of "known sources of income" constitute distributions from partnership funds to the partners'§ 71(a) accounts. Thus, even Yusuf's own "expert report" acknowledges the insurmountable difficulties inherent in any attempt to accurately reconstruct the partnership accounts . . . .(Emphasis added.)

In addition (3) Hamed does not have his bank records for the date September 17, 2006 -
- and records he has "as of the date of these responses" is irrelevant. (4) The request is oppressive and (5) overburdensome. Subject to those objections, Hamed states:**

A. Property outside of the USVI

Hamed owns certain parcels of land either individually or with Fathi Yusuf in Jordan. Hamed objects to listing these individually as: (1) Yusuf has full and equal knowledge as to them, (2) they are outside of the jurisdiction of this Court and objections have been filed here on that basis. Subject to that, If Yusuf will pay for the title search, Hamed will have a title company in Jordan supply a list of all properties owned.

B. Property in the USVI

Hamed's widow and the Hamed sons own the property on which their houses are located. Mr. Hamed also had small holdings of land worth less than $250,000. Waleed Hamed also owns an apartment duplex in Carlton on St. Croix, purchased sometime around 1987. However, although this question was not asked, in the interest of full disclosure, the Hameds own stock in several companies, all known to Yusuf and United. All such properties are listed in the records of the Recorder of Deeds for the US Virgin Islands under the respective company names. Though the request does not inquire as to those properties, if Yusuf will pay for the title search, Hamed will have a USVI title company supply a list of all properties owned by such corporate entities -- or depositions or subpoenae can be issued to said companies by Yusuf.

C. Stocks Outside of Investment Accounts

Hamed (or his Trust or Estate) along with his family members owns 50% of the stock of several USVI entities along with Yusuf of members of his family. None have been removed from the Trust/Estate since his death or encumbered in any way. These are all known to Yusuf. In addition, the Hamed sons own shares in several corporations unrelated to this litigation and which compete with Yusuf. In addition, also known to Yusuf, are shares in KAC357 Inc. which owns the leases of the stores obtained from the partnership. If a motion to compel this information is made, a motion for a protective order will be filed as a trade secret unrelated to the litigation.

** No documents were withheld based on the objections raised.

D. Bank and Brokerage Accounts

Hamed owns no more bank accounts as he is deceased. As for the older bank accounts of Hamed and his sons, Yusuf obtained the account numbers and records previously, served subpoenae and obtained the documents requested. Hamed and his sons have no such records, other than what was gathered by the FBI as part of the criminal case (United States v Yusuf, US District Court of the Virgin Islands, Division of St. Croix, 1:05-cr-15), which is equally available to Yusuf, before the current ones, which are irrelevant.

Yusuf's accountant (BDO) has testified by expert report that older bank records are not available. Subject to that (and the footnote), out of an abundance of caution, the Hameds list the following accounts, but do not know whether any of these accounts were transacted on or after September 17, 2006. Further, Wally Hamed's Cairo Amman bank statements for account numbers 02/501/171878/00 and 02/533/171878 were sent to Fathi Yusuf at the Tutu Park Plaza Extra location, St. Thomas, so he would be in the best position to know that status of those accounts and both of Wally Hamed Banque Francaise Commercial accounts were sent to Isam Yousuf in Sint-Maarten.

RFPD 2. Please produce any and all financial statements for Hamed, Waleed, Waheed, Mufeed and Hisham submitted to any person or institution from September 17, 2006 to present.

Response: Object: (1) overly broad, (2) not related to any claim as this appears to be a renewed effort to resurrect the "lifestyle" analysis that Judge Brady rejected. See Brady decision: Hamed v. Yusuf, et al.; SX-12-CV-370; SX-14-278; SX-14-287 Memorandum Opinion and Order Re Limitations on Accounting, July 21, 2017, at pp. 23-24.

As part of the accounting and distribution phase of the Wind Up, Yusuf submitted to the Master the report of accountant Fernando Scherrer of the accounting firm BDO, Puerto Rico, P.S.C. (BDO Report). Yusuf contends that this report constitutes a comprehensive accounting of the historical partner withdrawals and reconciliation for the time period 1994-2012." See Opposition to Motion to Strike BDO Report, filed October 20, 2016. However, the BDO report, by its own terms, appears to be anything but comprehensive. Most tellingly, the body of the BDO Report itself contains a section detailing its own substantial "limitations," resulting from the absence or inadequacy of records for each of the grocery stores covering various periods during the life of the partnership.<sup>25</sup> See Plaintiff's Motion to Strike BDO Rep't, Exhibit 1, at 22.

Additionally, the analysis presented in the report rests on the unsupported assumption that any monies identified in excess of "known sources of income" constitute distributions from partnership funds to the partners'§ 71(a) accounts. Thus, even Yusuf's own "expert report" acknowledges the insurmountable difficulties inherent in any attempt to accurately reconstruct the partnership accounts . . . .(Emphasis added.)

In addition (3) Hamed does not have his bank records for the date September 17, 2006 -- and records he has "as of the date of these responses" is irrelevant. (4) The request is oppressive and (5) overburdensome.

RFPD 3. Please produce all documents relating to water sales from Plaza Extra East location from April 2004 to March 9, 2015.

Response: Hamed disputes Yusuf's claim regarding Plaza Extra water sales. Yusuf contends that from April 1, 2004, all revenue from the sale of water that was collected by Plaza Extra-East was to be paid to United. The water sales actually did not belong to United, but to the Partnership.

A little background is in order. When the Partnership purchased the one-acre property at Plaza Extra-East, it also built, with Partnership funds, a 400,000 to 450,000 gallon cistern on the property. Additionally, one or two water wells also were used to fill the cistern. This was during the 1990s. At that time, there was a water shortage on island, WAPA had difficulty consistently providing water and, other than WAPA, there really weren't other companies selling water. The Partnership filled this gap by selling water, starting approximately in 1994. Yusuf is correct that during 1994-2004, the proceeds from the sale of the water went to charity (half to Mr. Yusuf's choice of charity and the other half to Mr. Hamed's choice of charity) and to pay the expenses of the water generation and delivery. At its peak, in the 1990s, 10 or more trucks a day, each with a capacity of about 30,000 gallons, delivered water to St. Croix residents.

After April 1, 2004, the funds generated from the enterprise went to the Partnership, rather than to charity. The sale of water dropped off quite dramatically for the Partnership in the 2000s. Competitors, such as Marcos and others, entered the market. To get a sense of the scope, in the 2000s, the Partnership was sending out one or two trucks a day to deliver water, rather than the previous 10 or more trucks.

Eventually, Yusuf Yusuf was in charge of monitoring the water sales. For a time, water sales were recorded on hand written receipts, but there weren't any controls to ensure that the vendors did not take more water than they were billed. Wally Hamed then recommended, and Yusuf Yusuf implemented, a key being programmed into the register at the service desk to record the sales of water.

Hamed objects to this claim by Yusuf & United for a number of reasons. First, neither United nor Yusuf has provided any document memorializing this so-called agreement between the Partnership and United because one does not exist. Next, Yusuf picks two years of sales, 1997 and 1998, and extrapolates those two years of sales into an average of $5,291.66 per month and applies that monthly figure to every month from April 1, 2004 through February 28, 2015. As is explained by the chronology, water sales dropped off dramatically in the 2000s, so of course Yusuf picks two years of sales during the most profitable years. Third, Yusuf does not provide any documentation to support the sales for 1997 and 1998, nor does he provide any documentation to support water sales from April 1, 2004 through February 28, 2015, even though both paper copy receipts and information from the register could be generated to show actual sales. Fourth, and perhaps most galling, United doesn't have any right to the water, as it is Partnership water, so this really isn't money United is entitled. Finally, this leads to Hamed's belief that this is another example of what Special Master Ross described as "a transaction prohibited by law and tainted by a conflict of interest and self-dealing," when discussing the inflated rents United tried to collect on Bay 1. Yusuf is not fulfilling his fiduciary duty to the Partnership and instead is trying to loot the Partnership for his corporation, United.

The documents relating to water sales from Plaza Extra East location from April 2004 to March 9, 2015 have been requested from Yusuf and United. These responses will be supplemented when they supply them.

RFPD 4. Please produce copies of any accountings prepared by or on behalf of any member of the Hamed or Yusuf families in the Criminal Case to demonstrate under-reported income?

Response: No such documents were prepared "by" them. As to documents prepared on their behalf: Hamed objects to any efforts to discover such expert material. As to documents prepared on their behalf: On December 1, 2010, F.R.Civ.P. 26 was amended to change the expert disclosure requirements and to limit expert discovery. Under the earlier version of Rule 26(a), experts who were required to prepare a written report<sup>1</sup> were also required to disclose the "facts or other information considered" in forming their expert opinions.<sup>2</sup> This broad language ("other information" plus "considered") was interpreted so broadly by the district courts that virtually anything "considered, reviewed or generated" by a retained expert became discoverable, regardless of whether the materials were actually relied upon in forming the expert opinions.<sup>3</sup>

The former language was interpreted to include drafts of expert reports and even "attorney-expert communications that explain the lawyer's concept of the underlying facts, or his view of the opinions expected."<sup>4</sup> There were few exceptions.<sup>5</sup> To the federal courts, "other information considered" meant everything under the sun, and counsel and experts went to considerable lengths to protect their communications or avoid them altogether.

The Advisory Committee recognized the problems created by the overly broad scope of Rule 26(a)'s disclosure requirements. The Committee acknowledged that the discoverability of expert-attorney communications has initiated a "guarded attitude" between lawyers and testifying experts and that strategies to protect against expert discovery have increased costs and impeded effective expert communications.<sup>6</sup> (For example, to avoid discovery of their collaborative discussions, attorneys often employ two sets of experts – one for consultation and the other to prepare Rule 26 disclosures and testify at trial.<sup>7</sup>) By the same token, "experts adopt strategies that protect against discovery but also interfere with their work."<sup>8</sup>

The amendments to Rule 26 were intended to eliminate these problems. Amended Rule 26 replaced the phrase, "facts or other information considered" with "facts or data considered."<sup>9</sup> The Advisory Committee explained that "the refocus of disclosure on 'facts or data' is meant to limit disclosure to material of a factual nature by excluding theories or mental impressions of counsel."<sup>10</sup> The idea was to create work-product protection for "draft expert disclosures or reports" and "communications between expert witnesses and counsel."<sup>11</sup>

The amendments also encompassed Section 26(b)(4)(c) which specifically protects communications between reporting experts and attorneys, regardless of the form of the communications, except to the extent the communications:

- (i) relate to compensation for the expert's study or testimony;
- (ii) identify facts or data that the party's attorney provided and that the expert considered in forming the opinions to be expressed; or
- (iii) identify assumptions that the party's attorney provided and that the expert relied on in forming the opinions to be expressed.

The revised version of Rule 26(b)(4)(b) further "protect[s] drafts of any report or disclosure required under Rule 26(a)(2), regardless of the form in which the draft is recorded."

Finally, as per Amended Rule 26(a)(C)(i)-(ii), a formal expert report is no longer necessary for experts not "retained or specially employed to provide expert testimony."<sup>1</sup>

RFPD 7. Please produce all documents relating to all assets of Hamed as of September 12, 2012 and the value of such assets.

Response: Object. All of the assets set forth in the Trust Agreement are listed on the Trust Agreement -- which has been provided. This request for the production of documents attempts to invade the Trust. There are more than sufficient assets in the corporate and real estate holdings of the Trust, which have not changed since the Trust was funded, to pay any potential judgment. Thus, all such inquiries seeking discovery for "fraudulent conveyance" in the consolidated action are premature here.

Subject to this objection, Waleed Hamed states:

1. Into the Trust, Mohammad Hamed placed assets, some of which are listed below, in 2012 -- which listed assets all remain in the Trust, unpledged and unencumbered in any manner:
  - a. 10% of the shares (10 shares) of Plessen Enterprises, Inc.
  - b. 10% of the shares (10 shares) of Sixteen Plus.<sup>2</sup>

3. In addition, there are Mohammad Hamed claims pending in the action Hamed v. Yusuf and United, SX-12-CV-370<sup>5</sup> against Fathi Yusuf and United Corporation as follows:

- a. One-half of the original $2.7 million that Judge Brady found that the Yusuf's had stolen from the Partnership,<sup>6</sup> (See the Court's detailed Memorandum of April 25, 2013, Hamed v. Yusuf, 58 V.I. 117, 2013 WL 1846506 (V.I. Super. Apr. 25, 2013)).

<sup>5</sup> This litigation began in 2012 when Fathi and Mike Yusuf unilaterally took $2,784,706.25 from a Partnership account and transferred it to an account to which the Hameds did not have access. This was the main issue in Hamed's 2012 complaint and the central issue during the early portion of this case. Yusuf took the position that Hamed had no interest in the Plaza Extra Stores. Based on this, he took $2.7 million from the Partnership account and also tried to have the police remove the Hameds from the stores. Thus, Judge Brady granted a full evidentiary TRO hearing over two full days -- January 25th and 31st, 2013. Three months later, the Court ruled for Hamed on the matter. (See the Court's detailed Memorandum of April 25, 2013, Hamed v. Yusuf, 58 V.I. 117, 2013 WL 1846506 (V.I. Super. Apr. 25, 2013)). The Court stated at paragraphs 35 and 36:

On the first hearing day, Mahar Yusuf, President of United. Corporation testified under oath that he used the $2,784,706.25 withdrawn from the Plaza Extra operating account to buy three properties on St. Croix in the name of United. On the second hearing day, Mahar Yusuf, contradicted his prior testimony and admitted that those withdrawn funds had actually been used to invest in businesses not owned by United. . . . Id. at *10.

And, further, at footnote 9, at *19:

With regard to the August 2012 diversion of more than $2.7 million by Mahar Yusuf, president of United, to accounts inaccessible to Plaintiff, a real concern exists that continuing diversions will not be traceable as the Plaza Extra store have had no system of internal controls in existence and, to date accounting for the businesses is not completed beyond June 2012....

<sup>6</sup> This asset is within the control of the Court here and cannot be realized before that action is decided.

- b. More than $500,000 dollars Judge Brady found had been wrongfully taken from Partnership accounts to pay for Yusuf's personal lawyer.<sup>7</sup> See Court's detailed Memorandum of April 25, 2013.
- c. One-half of $8 million in cash, presently escrowed in a Court-supervised account, which Hamed's share may increase based on the on-going accounting.<sup>8</sup>
- d. Two parcels of land in United's name paid for with Partnership funds and transferred to United without any consideration.<sup>9</sup>
- e. One-half of more than $26 million in "new" claims listed in a 2016 Expert Report as having been improperly paid or accounted for by Yusuf and United when they controlled accounts from 2012-present.<sup>10</sup> It is also important to note that if EVERY remaining Yusuf Claim were granted against Hamed and none of the other counter-defendants (new claims are no longer allowed), and every one of the Hamed claims for $26 million were denied, Yusuf's total remaining potential claims are still less than the value of just the enumerated Hamed assets in Trust plus half of Hamed's remaining $4 million in escrow.

5. In this, the amount claimed in the January 14, 2013, Amended Counterclaim plus interest -- against all defendants -- is $7 million<sup>11</sup> -- far less than $9,600,000 plus the $4,000,000 in cash in the escrow.
6. Of the remaining claims against Mohammad Hamed in that case, the most likely and significant one was by United, for back rents of $6,974,063.10. It was soundly denied by Special Master Ross, who found, at page 6 (emphasis added):

Thus, the evidence and facts surrounding Yusuf's action through United—terminating the lease with the Partnership at Bay 1, treating the Partnership as a holdover tenant, and raising United's rent significantly higher than the agreed upon rent—demonstrates a transaction prohibited by law and tainted by a conflict of interest and self-dealing.

Subject to the above, please see Attachment A for a listing of documents responsive to this request.

RFPD 8. For any allocation set forth in Exhibits 1-5 that you dispute, please produce all documents relating to any such allocation.

Response: As a general matter, the BDO tables in Exhibits 1-5 are incorrect, are based on incomplete data, and are – by the admission of Yusuf's own experts – inaccurate and incomplete. See p. 2 and 22 of the BDO Report (emphasis added).

[At 2] records were prepared in an informal manner.

[At 22] Our report and the findings included herein have been impacted by the limitation of the information available in the Case. Following is a summary of the limitations we encountered during the performance of the engagement.

Hamed and his agents have obtained in excess of $7 million of the Plaza Extra Stores' monies under such circumstances that in equity and good conscience they ought not retain and the Hamed Sons participated and aided and abetted in this conduct by accepting funds from the Plaza Extra Stores and, among other things, using them to purchase and improve properties for their own personal benefit.

Accounting records and/or documents (checks registers, bank reconciliations, deposits and disbursements of Supermarkets' accounts) provided in connection with Supermarkets were limited to covering the period from 2002 through 2004, East and West from 2006 through 2012, and Tutu Park from 2009 through 2012.

Accounting records and/or documents provided to us for the periods prior to 2003 are incomplete and limited to bank statements, deposit slips, cancelled checks, check registers, investments and broker statements, cash withdrawal tickets/receipts and cash withdrawal receipt listings. For example, the retention policy for statements, checks, deposits, credits in Banco Popular de Puerto Rico is seven years; therefore, there is no Bank information available prior to 2007 and electronic transactions do not generate any physical evidence as to regular deposits and/or debits. Information discovered about the case up to August 31, 2014. We only considered information up to December 31, 2012. Transactions after that date were adjusted in our report.

Any monies identified through our analysis in excess of the amount identified from the known sources of income (e.g. salaries, rent income, etc.) were assumed to be partnership withdrawals/distributions. With regards to the Hamed family, . . . .

The lifestyle analysis is supported by available information related to deposits to banks and brokerage accounts and payments to credit cards during the period from January 1994 to December 2012 or until Gaffney was assigned to work with the Supermarkets accounting.

Second, Judge Brady also found the reports lacking in terms of comprehensiveness and he also rejected BDO's purported "lifestyle" analysis. See Brady decision: Hamed v. Yusuf, et al.; SX-12-CV-370; SX-14-278; SX-14-287 Memorandum Opinion and Order Re Limitations on Accounting, July 21, 2017, at pp. 23-24.

As part of the accounting and distribution phase of the Wind Up, Yusuf submitted to the Master the report of accountant Fernando Scherrer of the accounting firm BDO, Puerto Rico, P.S.C. (BDO Report). Yusuf contends that this report constitutes a comprehensive accounting of the historical partner withdrawals and reconciliation for the time period 1994-2012." See Opposition to Motion to Strike BDO Report, filed October 20, 2016. However, the BDO report, by its own terms, appears to be anything but comprehensive. Most tellingly, the body of the BDO Report itself contains a section detailing its own substantial "limitations," resulting from the absence or inadequacy of records for each of the grocery stores covering various periods during the life of the partnership.<sup>25</sup> See Plaintiff's Motion to Strike BDO Rep't, Exhibit 1, at 22.

Additionally, the analysis presented in the report rests on the unsupported assumption that any monies identified in excess of "known sources of income" constitute distributions from partnership funds to the partners' § 71(a) accounts. Thus, even Yusuf's own "expert report" acknowledges the insurmountable difficulties inherent in any attempt to accurately reconstruct the partnership accounts . . . .(Emphasis added.)

Finally, Judge Brady's July 24, 2017 Order limits claims to transactions that occurred on or after September 17, 2006:

ORDERED that the accounting in this matter, to which each partner is entitled under 26 V.I.C § 177(b), conducted pursuant to the Final Wind Up Plan adopted by the Court, shall be limited in scope to consider only those claimed credits and charges to partner accounts, within the meaning of 26 V.I.C § 71(a), based upon transactions that occurred on or after September 17, 2006.

Hamed v. Yusuf, Civ. No. SX-12-CV-370, 2017 WL 3168458, at *29 (V.I.Super. July 21, 2017).

As a result of those three reasons, Hamed disputes the BDO tables in Exhibits 1-5.

Subject to those objections, Hamed states the following:

Exhibit 1, BDO Tables 1-6:

Table 1 – Hamed objects to Table 1. The $3 million distributed to Fathi and Fawzia Yusuf were Partnership distributions to them alone. Their affidavits clearly state that the amounts were gifts to Mafi and Shawn Hamed. Nothing in the affidavits suggest that the gifts are partnership distributions from both families. Further, there are no other writings documenting that this was an equal distribution between Hamed and Yusuf. This was solely a Yusuf withdrawal. Moreover, in the Hoda Hamed's divorce proceedings she describes these as her father's or her property for these same reasons.

Additionally, Fathi Yusuf withdrew an additional $1 million for himself at the same time the $3 million in gifts was drawn. Mr. Yusuf kept that money for his own purposes and there was no corresponding $1 million withdrawal for Hamed. See, HAMD248055-HAMD248057.pdf, HAMD200057-HAMD200057.pdf.

Tables 2A-4A, 5A-5B – Hamed objects to Tables 2A-4A,5A-5B. These tables are irrelevant because Judge Brady's July 24, 2017 Order limits claims to transactions that occurred on or after September 17, 2006:

ORDERED that the accounting in this matter, to which each partner is entitled under 26 V.I.C § 177(b), conducted pursuant to the Final Wind Up Plan adopted by the Court, shall be limited in scope to consider only those claimed credits and charges to partner accounts, within the meaning of 26 V.I.C § 71(a), based upon transactions that occurred on or after September 17, 2006.

Hamed v. Yusuf, Civ. No. SX-12-CV-370, 2017 WL 3168458, at *29 (V.I.Super. July 21, 2017). All of the dates on Tables 2A-4B, 5A-5B occurred prior to September 17, 2006 and thus are not proper claims under the Order.

Hamed has not evaluated each allocation individually to identify errors because the timeframe covered by the tables is outside of the post-2006 scope as articulated in Judge Brady's July 21, 2017 Order. For a sampling of disputes Hamed has regarding these tables, please see the testimony and exhibits from the March 6, 2017 hearing before Judge Brady. Further, see generally, the documents the FBI seized in its 2001 raid for documents contradicting BDO's tables, which were produced by Yusuf to Hamed on August 26, 2013.

Tables 4A-5B—Hamed objects to Tables 4A-5A, which form the underlying basis for the lifestyle analysis. The "lifestyle analysis" these tables underpin have already been discredited in Judge Brady's July 21, 2017 Order:

Additionally, the analysis presented in the report rests on the unsupported assumption that any monies identified in excess of "known sources of income" constitute distributions from partnership funds to the partners' § 71(a) accounts. Thus, even Yusuf's own "expert report" acknowledges the insurmountable difficulties inherent in any attempt to accurately reconstruct the partnership accounts; a project which necessarily becomes proportionately more difficult and less reliable the farther back in time one goes.

Id. at *24 (emphasis added). Further, all of the Yusuf deposits and charges to credit cards were not accounted for in the BDO report, making the comparisons between the two families' spending inaccurate.<sup>12</sup> Finally, many of the deposits in these tables occurred prior to September 17, 2006, also rendering them moot under the Judge's Order.

Table 6—Hamed objects to Table 6 for all of the reasons given for Tables 1-5.

Exhibit 2, BDO Tables 7-14:

Tables 7A-9B – Hamed objects to Tables 7A-9B. These tables are irrelevant date because Judge Brady's July 24, 2017 Order limits claims to transactions that occurred on or after September 17, 2006:

ORDERED that the accounting in this matter, to which each partner is entitled under 26 V.I.C § 177(b), conducted pursuant to the Final Wind Up Plan adopted by the Court, shall be limited in scope to consider only those claimed credits and charges to partner accounts, within the meaning of 26 V.I.C § 71(a), based upon transactions that occurred on or after September 17, 2006.

Hamed v. Yusuf, Civ. No. SX-12-CV-370, 2017 WL 3168458, at *29 (V.I.Super. July 21, 2017). All of the dates on Tables 7A-9B occurred prior to September 17, 2006 and thus are not proper claims under the Order.

Hamed has not evaluated each allocation individually to identify errors because the timeframe covered by the tables is outside of the scope as articulated in Judge Brady's July 21, 2017 Order. For a sampling of disputes Hamed has regarding these exhibits, please see the testimony and exhibits from the March 6, 2017 hearing before Judge Brady. Further, see generally, the documents the FBI seized in its 2001 raid for documents contradicting BDO's tables, which were produced by Yusuf to Hamed on August 26, 2013.

<sup>12</sup> BDO reported, for example, that Fathi, Maher and Yusuf Yusuf had no spending on credit cards from January 1994 through December 2012 and Nejeah Yusuf only had $100 in spending during the same time period.

Table 10A – Hamed objects to Table 10A as these are attorneys' fees and associated expenses incurred in the joint defense of the criminal case, United States of America vs. United Corp. et. al., in the District Court of the Virgin Islands (St. Thomas Division), Docket No. 1:05-cr-00015. These expenses were not split or attributed to any individual defendant, "rather all defense counsel worked together on behalf of all of the represented defendants in a joint effort to defend the case," according to the affidavit of Gordon C. Rhea:

I, GORDON C. RHEA, declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 1746, as follows:

1. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein.
2. I am an attorney licensed to practice law in the U.S. Virgin Islands.
3. I was one of the defense lawyers in the criminal action filed by the United States of America in the District Court of the Virgin Islands (St. Thomas Division), Docket No, 1:05-cr-00015, against the following defendants:

FATHI YUSUF MOHAMAD YUSUF, aka Fathi Yusuf
WALEED MOHAMMAD HAMED, aka Wally Hamed
WAHEED MOHAMMAD HAMED, aka Willie Hamed
MAHER FATHI YUSUF, aka Mike Yusuf
NEJEH FATHI YUSUF,
ISAM YUSUF, and
UNITED CORPORATION

4. All of the defendants in that criminal case, except for Isam Yousef who was never apprehended, were represented jointly by multiple counsel, including myself, under a Joint Defense Agreement.
5. Pursuant to the Joint Defense Agreement, all defense counsel worked together on behalf of all of the represented defendants in a joint effort to defend the case.
6. A plea agreement was reached in December of 2010 . . . , with a modification made thereafter in early 2011. . . . As noted therein, the only defendant who pled guilty was United Corporation, as the charges were dismissed against all of the other represented defendants.
7. The Joint Defense Agreement then continued during the sentencing phase of the case (to primarily address the tax issues related to the Plea) until September 19, 2012, when the Joint Defense Agreement was terminated.
8. Under the Joint Defense Agreement;

- a. All legal and accounting work was done jointly on behalf of all represented defendants in an effort to defend all of them at the same time.
- b. Bills for attorneys' fees and expenses reflected the work of counsel done for all defendants without allocating specific items to individual defendants.
- c. Simply because a bill was directed to a specific defendant did not reflect their individual personal obligation, as the bills were the joint obligation of all defendants while the Joint Defense Agreement was in place.
- d. All defendants were all aware of this fact, as applications for payment of the bills submitted under Joint Defense Agreement had to be made to the United States Attorney, who would then have to authorize funds to pay these bills from the defendants' bank accounts which had been frozen by court order.
- e. Until the Joint Defense Agreement was terminated all legal bills were paid from a United Plaza Extra account.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

(See, Exhibit 44 to the March 6, 2017 hearing before Judge Brady in this case, HAMD641485-HAMD642240.pdf)

Further evidence of this is shown in letters Randall Andreozzi, Esq., wrote on behalf of the United Corporation in 2012-2009 to the federal government, requesting Partnership funds be released on United's behalf. An attorney solely representing Waleed Hamed would not be making requests to the federal government in a criminal case on behalf of the United Corporation and its shareholders. Yusuf's argument that Attorney Andreozzi solely represented Waleed Hamed during the time of the joint defense agreement is absurd.<sup>13</sup> See, e.g., HAMD562177-HAMD562179.pdf, HAMD562183-

<sup>13</sup> First, 10A is incomprehensible. What BDO appears to have done on 10A, is target bills from specific attorneys such as Pam Colon or other similar professionals. Thus, in bulk, Colon's bills were excepted. No reference is made to what work she actually did or for whom from any documentation. Beyond the obvious refutation of this by the supplied declaration and the underlying Joint Defense Agreement, Hamed notes that no support is provided in the invoices of such lawyers as to either the work done or for which party it was done. Moreover, in his May 8, 2018 Order, Special Master Ross made it clear that such charges which pre-date the end of the Joint Defense Agreement are Partnership expenses – i.e. DiRuzzo's were allowed without parsing them.

Tables 10B – Hamed does not believe he can contest this table, as it appears that BDO excepted these amounts from the calculations. If that is in error, this response will be supplemented.

Table 11A – Hamed objects to Table 11A. This table is irrelevant date because Judge Brady's July 24, 2017 Order limits claims to transactions that occurred on or after September 17, 2006:

ORDERED that the accounting in this matter, to which each partner is entitled under 26 V.I.C § 177(b), conducted pursuant to the Final Wind Up Plan adopted by the Court, shall be limited in scope to consider only those claimed credits and charges to partner accounts, within the meaning of 26 V.I.C § 71(a), based upon transactions that occurred on or after September 17, 2006.

Hamed v. Yusuf, Civ. No. SX-12-CV-370, 2017 WL 3168458, at *29 (V.I.Super. July 21, 2017). All of the dates on Tables 11A occurred prior to September 17, 2006 and thus are not proper claims under the Order. Further, Table 11A demonstrates the incompleteness of the BDO report. For example, BDO's note 2 on Table 11A states "[a]mounts were transferred to Cairo Amman Bank account #250117187800 (account not included on our scope)." Thus, note 2 shows that BDO did not do a true accounting because not all accounts were included and, according to the body of the BDO report, not all records

Thus, the completely unsupported and fanciful pre-May 8, 2018, "assumption" by BDO as to what work Ms. Colon did, for example, underlines the failure of Table 10A. To put this another way, this is not an accounting, it is a "BDO accepts the completely unsupported statement of Fathi Yusuf, in the total absence of underlying documentation, as to who did what – and we might as well have claimed absolutely ANY amount and simply said 'because Fathi said so'." Again, this is not an attempt to provide an accounting via underlying documents, it is an attempt to make a position look like an accounting by dropping in a bunch of numbers based on what Fathi Yusuf "told" BDO, and then having BDO sign.

were available. See p. 2 and 22 of the BDO Report. Put another way, Fathi Yusuf could have taken tens of millions through the Cairo Amman Bank account #250117187800, and it would not show up here. That is not an accounting, it is a one-sided speculative argument.

Table 11B – Same...Hamed does not contest this table, as it appears that BDO excepted these amounts from the calculations. Hamed does not, however, agree with Note 1: “All transactions that occur during the period while Gaffney was in charge of the accounting were adjusted to avoid duplicity because all withdrawals were supposed to be accounted for by Gaffney.”

During a portion of 2013, the Hameds were locked out of the Partnership's financials—both paper and electronic access to bank records – and were subsequently told by Mr. Gaffney that all bank statements for the Partnership during that time period were not available for their review because paper statements for some of the accounts did not exist. Accordingly, Hamed cannot assert that all Yusuf withdrawals were properly accounted by Mr. Gaffney, demonstrating another reason why BDO's Exhibit J-2 to Yusuf's October 30, 2017 revised amended claims submission regarding the amount BDO claims Hamed owes Yusuf is probably inaccurate.

Tables 12A-13C – Hamed objects to Tables 12A-13C, which form the underlying basis for the lifestyle analysis. The “lifestyle analysis” these tables underpin have already been discredited in Judge Brady's July 21, 2017 Order:

Additionally, the analysis presented in the report rests on the unsupported assumption that any monies identified in excess of “known sources of income” constitute distributions from partnership funds to the partners' § 71(a) accounts. Thus, even Yusuf's own “expert report” acknowledges the insurmountable difficulties inherent in any attempt to accurately reconstruct the partnership accounts; a project which necessarily becomes proportionately more difficult and less reliable the farther back in time one goes.

Hamed v. Yusuf, 2017 WL 3168458, at *24 (emphasis added). Also, all of the Yusuf deposits and charges to credit cards were not accounted for in the BDO report, making the comparisons between the two families' spending inaccurate.<sup>14</sup> Finally, Hamed's income earned from sources other than his salary from the Partnership was not included, plus many of the bank account deposits and payments to credit cards in these tables occurred prior to September 17, 2006, also rendering them moot under the Judge's Order.

Table 14 – Hamed objects to Table 14 for all of the reasons given for Tables 7A-13C, plus the following: The headings on Table 14 make it difficult to determine which items occurred on or after Judge Brady's September 17, 2006 date for permissible claims. For instance, Table 14 shows "Funds Withdrawn through Partnership Checks" to be $232,670.00 (BDO Table 7B). All of those withdrawals were prior to 2004, thus none of those withdrawals are applicable to the current claims process. Additionally, Table 14 shows "Withdrawals from the Partnership with a Signed Ticket/Receipt" to be $273,630.00. All of those withdrawals were prior to 2003 (BDO Table 8B), thus none of those withdrawals are applicable to the current claims process. This amount, presumably in error, was carried over to BDO's revised Table J-2, which Hamed also disputes. Similarly, Table 14 shows "Payments to Third Parties on behalf of Hamed/Yusuf with Partnership Funds Either with Tickets or Checks" to be $4,130.00. All of those withdrawals were prior to 2003 (BDO Table 9B), thus none of those withdrawals are applicable to the current claims process. This amount somehow jumped from $4,130.00 to $20,311.00 on BDO's revised Table J-2, which Hamed disputes.

<sup>14</sup> BDO reported, for example, that Fathi, Maher and Yusuf Yusuf had no spending on credit cards from January 1994 through December 2012 and Nejeah Yusuf only had $100 in spending during the same time period.

Finally, Table 14 shows "Amount Owed by Hamed Family to Yusuf as per Agreement Before Raid Sept. 2001. As per Mike's Testimony these Tickets were Burned (Refer to Letter dated August 15, 2012)" to be $1,778,103.00. This amount is disputed and Hamed is unclear where BDO's came up with an amount of $1,778,103.00. The amount in the letter refers to "Past Confirmed Withdrawals" as $1,600,000.00, and that is the amount referenced below. See, HAMD200104-HAMD200104.pdf. In any event, Hamed does not owe the $1.6 or $1.77 million.

Hamed stated in Plaintiff's Response to Defendant United's First Set of Interrogatories to Plaintiff Hamed, December 23, 2013, Hamed v Yusuf, 12-SX-CV-370, as follows:

Describe in detail what objections you have to the accounting provided to you by Fathi Yusuf regarding the $2.7 million dollars amount that was withdrawn by United Corporation in August of 2013 as an offset to your previous withdrawals and identify all persons with knowledge of any such facts and all documents which support your answer to this interrogatory.

Hamed Response: There are multiple problems with this accounting, which was recently supplied to my lawyers after repeated requests that it be provided. While this investigation and review continues, which will be the subject of an expert accounting report, several problems have already been noted.

First, it states that $1.6 million was due and owing at the time of the removal of the $2.7 million. That claim is time barred. Moreover, while it is true that in 1999 Mafi Hamed and Maher Yusuf met and reconciled the outstanding chits related to 50/50 distribution of the Sion Farm grocery store profits, showing $1.6 million was due to the Yusufs to "true up" the differences in the 50/50 profit withdrawals at that time for that store, there are other offsets to that amount. For example, there were amounts to "true up" from the other stores as well. Likewise, after that time, Fathi Yusuf and his sons took funds that were required to be offset against that amount, as he well knows. . . .(Emphasis added.)

What Mohammad Hamed stated, at page 102-103 of his 3/31-4/1, 2014 deposition was:

In.9 Q. (Mr. Hodges) And as I understand it, as of today,
In.10 you -- you are still not aware of the facts and
In.11 circumstances surrounding the $1.6 million that's referenced

This was just one small part of the relationship between the parties that was partially accounted at one time, and thus was incomplete. Mike Yusuf testified that Plaza Extra - East receipts were tallied between the Hameds and the Yusufs, showing that Hameds had taken out approximately $1.6 million more than the Yusufs prior to the 2001 FBI raid. However, Mike Yusuf also testified that the reconciliation did not include St. Thomas and it did not include all of the Plaza Extra-East receipts. See, 30(b)(6) Deposition of United Corporation through its representative, Mike Yusuf, Hamed v Yusuf, SX-12-CV-370, April 3, 2014, pp. 64-68. The $1.6 million was just one facet of various claims between the Yusufs (not United) and the Hameds at that time. To get what was "owed" as an effect of ALL ACCOUNTS at that time, one would have to know the similar amounts from the other operations at the same time.

Thus, Hamed objects to this amount because 1) it is outside of the applicable timeframe for claims and 2) it is clear that a full accounting prior to the FBI raid was not done, thus making the $1.6 million one data point in the various claims between the Partners.

Exhibit 3, BDO Tables 15-22:

Tables 15A-17B, 20A, 21A-21B – Hamed objects to Tables 15A-17B, 20A, 21A-21B.

These tables are irrelevant because Judge Brady's July 24, 2017 Order limits claims to transactions that occurred on or after September 17, 2006:

ORDERED that the accounting in this matter, to which each partner is entitled under 26 V.I.C § 177(b), conducted pursuant to the Final Wind Up Plan adopted by the Court, shall be limited in scope to consider only those claimed credits and charges to partner accounts, within the meaning of 26 V.I.C § 71(a), based upon transactions that occurred on or after September 17, 2006.

Hamed v. Yusuf, Civ. No. SX-12-CV-370, 2017 WL 3168458, at *29 (V.I.Super. July 21, 2017). All of the dates on Tables 15A-17B, 20A, 21A-21B occurred prior to September 17, 2006 and thus are not proper claims under the Order.

Hamed has not evaluated each allocation individually to identify errors because the timeframe covered by the tables is outside of the scope as articulated in Judge Brady's July 21, 2017 Order. For a sampling of disputes Hamed has regarding these tables, please see the testimony and exhibits from the March 6, 2017 hearing before Judge Brady. Further, see generally, the documents the FBI seized in its 2001 raid for documents contradicting BDO's tables, which were produced by Yusuf to Hamed on August 26, 2013.

Table 18 - Hamed objects to Table 18 as these are attorneys' fees and associated expenses incurred in the joint defense of the criminal case, United States of America vs. United Corp. et. al., in the District Court of the Virgin Islands (St. Thomas Division), Docket No. 1:05-cr-00015. These expenses were not split or attributed to any individual defendant, "rather all defense counsel worked together on behalf of all of the represented defendants in a joint effort to defend the case," according to the affidavit of Gordon C.

Rhea:

I, GORDON C. RHEA, declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 1746, as follows:

2. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein.
2. I am an attorney licensed to practice law in the U.S. Virgin Islands.
3. I was one of the defense lawyers in the criminal action filed by the United States of America in the District Court of the Virgin Islands (St. Thomas Division), Docket No, 1:05-cr-00015, against the following defendants:

FATHI YUSUF MOHAMAD YUSUF, aka Fathi Yusuf
WALEED MOHAMMAD HAMED, aka Wally Hamed
WAHEED MOHAMMAD HAMED, aka Willie Hamed
MAHER FATHI YUSUF, aka Mike Yusuf
NEJEH FATHI YUSUF,
ISAM YUSUF, and
UNITED CORPORATION

4. All of the defendants in that criminal case, except for Isam Yousef who was never apprehended, were represented jointly by multiple counsel, including myself, under a Joint Defense Agreement.
5. Pursuant to the Joint Defense Agreement, all defense counsel worked together on behalf of all of the represented defendants in a joint effort to defend the case.
6. A plea agreement was reached in December of 2010 . . . , with a modification made thereafter in early 2011. . . . As noted therein, the only defendant who pled guilty was United Corporation, as the charges were dismissed against all of the other represented defendants.
7. The Joint Defense Agreement then continued during the sentencing phase of the case (to primarily address the tax issues related to the Plea) until September 19, 2012, when the Joint Defense Agreement was terminated.
8. Under the Joint Defense Agreement;
  - a. All legal and accounting work was done jointly on behalf of all represented defendants in an effort to defend all of them at the same time.
  - b. Bills for attorneys' fees and expenses reflected the work of counsel done for all defendants without allocating specific items to individual defendants.
  - c. Simply because a bill was directed to a specific defendant did not reflect their individual personal obligation, as the bills were the joint obligation of all defendants while the Joint Defense Agreement was in place.
  - d. All defendants were all aware of this fact, as applications for payment of the bills submitted under Joint Defense Agreement had to be made to the United States Attorney, who would then have to authorize funds to pay these bills from the defendants' bank accounts which had been frozen by court order.

e. Until the Joint Defense Agreement was terminated all legal bills were paid from a United Plaza Extra account.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

(See, Exhibit 44 to the March 6, 2017 hearing before Judge Brady in this case, HAMD641485-HAMD642240.pdf).<sup>15</sup>

Further evidence of this is shown in letters Randall Andreozzi, Esq., wrote on behalf of the United Corporation in 2012-2009 to the federal government, requesting Partnership funds be released on United's behalf. An attorney solely representing Waleed Hamed would not be making requests to the federal government in a criminal case on behalf of the United Corporation and its shareholders. Yusuf's argument that Attorney Andreozzi solely represented Waleed Hamed during the time of the joint defense agreement is absurd. See, e.g., HAMD562177-HAMD562179.pdf, HAMD562183-HAMD562185.pdf, HAMD261888-HAMD261892.pdf, HAMD562180-HAMD562182.pdf, HAMD562174-HAMD562176.pdf, HAMD562159-HAMD562166.pdf and HAMD562157-HAMD562158.pdf.

<sup>15</sup> First, Table 18 is incomprehensible. What BDO appears to have done on 18, is target bills from specific attorneys such as Pam Colon or other similar professionals. Thus, in bulk, Colon's bills were excepted. No reference is made to what work she actually did or for whom from any documentation. Beyond the obvious refutation of this by the supplied declaration and the underlying Joint Defense Agreement, Hamed notes that no support is provided in the invoices of such lawyers as to either the work done or for which party it was done.

Thus, the completely unsupported and fanciful "assumption" by BDO as to what work Ms. Colon did, for example, underlines the failure of Table 10A. To put this another way, this is not an accounting, it is a "BDO accepts the completely unsupported statement of Fathi Yusuf, in the total absence of underlying documentation, as to who did what – and we might as well have claimed absolutely ANY amount and simply said 'because Fathi said so'." Again, this is not an attempt to provide an accounting via underlying documents, it is an attempt to make a position look like an accounting by dropping in a bunch of numbers based on what Fathi Yusuf "told" BDO, and then having BDO sign.

Table 19 – Hamed does not contest this table, as it appears that BDO excepted these amounts from the calculations.

Tables 20A-21C – Hamed objects to Tables 20A-21C, which form the underlying basis for the lifestyle analysis. The “lifestyle analysis” these tables underpin have already been discredited in Judge Brady's July 21, 2017 Order:

Additionally, the analysis presented in the report rests on the unsupported assumption that any monies identified in excess of “known sources of income” constitute distributions from partnership funds to the partners' § 71(a) accounts. Thus, even Yusuf's own “expert report” acknowledges the insurmountable difficulties inherent in any attempt to accurately reconstruct the partnership accounts; a project which necessarily becomes proportionately more difficult and less reliable the farther back in time one goes.

Hamed v. Yusuf, 2017 WL 3168458, at *24 (emphasis added). Also, all of the Yusuf deposits and charges to credit cards were not accounted for in the BDO report, making the comparisons between the two families' spending inaccurate.<sup>16</sup> Further, Hamed's income earned from sources other than his salary from the Partnership was not included, plus many of the bank account deposits and payments to credit cards in these tables occurred prior to September 17, 2006, also rendering them moot under the Judge's Order.

Finally, Hamed does not agree with Tickmark A on Table 21C: “All transactions that occur during the period while Gaffney was in charge of the accounting were adjusted to avoid duplicity because all withdrawals were supposed to be accounted for by Gaffney.” During a portion of 2013, the Hameds were locked out of the Partnership's financials—both paper and electronic access to bank records – and were subsequently told by Mr. Gaffney that all bank statements for the Partnership during that time period were not available for their review because paper statements for some of the accounts did not exist. Accordingly, Hamed cannot assert that all Yusuf withdrawals were properly accounted by Mr. Gaffney, demonstrating another reason why BDO's Exhibit J-2 to Yusuf's October 30, 2017 revised amended claims submission regarding the amount BDO claims Hamed owes Yusuf is inaccurate.

Table 22 – Hamed objects to Table 22 for all of the reasons given for Tables 15A-21C, plus the following: The headings on Table 22 make it difficult to determine which items occurred on or after Judge Brady's September 17, 2006 date for permissible claims. For instance, Table 22 shows "Funds Withdrawn through Partnership Checks" to be $72,400.44 (BDO Tables 15A-B). All of those withdrawals were prior to 2005, thus none of those withdrawals are applicable to the current claims process. Additionally, Table 22 shows "Withdrawals from the Partnership with a Signed Ticket/Receipt" to be $1,307,622.00. All of those withdrawals were prior to 2002 (BDO Tables 16A-16B), therefore none of those withdrawals are applicable to the current claims process. Finally, Table 22 shows "Payments to Third Parties on behalf of Hamed/Yusuf with Partnership Funds Either with Tickets or Checks" to be $528,998.81. All of those withdrawals were prior to 2003 (BDO Table 17A-17B), thus none of those withdrawals are applicable to the current claims process.

Exhibit 4, BDO Tables 23-28

Tables 23A-26A, 27A – Hamed objects to Tables 23A-26A, 27A. These tables are irrelevant date because Judge Brady's July 24, 2017 Order limits claims to transactions that occurred on or after September 17, 2006:

ORDERED that the accounting in this matter, to which each partner is entitled under 26 V.I.C § 177(b), conducted pursuant to the Final Wind Up Plan adopted by the Court, shall be limited in scope to consider only those claimed credits and charges to partner accounts, within the meaning of 26 V.I.C § 71(a), based upon transactions that occurred on or after September 17, 2006.

Hamed has not evaluated each allocation individually to identify errors because the timeframe covered by the tables is outside of the scope as articulated in Judge Brady's July 21, 2017 Order. RFPD 9. Please produce all documents relating to your claim that no rent is due from the Partnership to occupying Bay 5 and Bay 8.

Response: Hamed disputes the Partnership owes United rent for Bays 5 and 8 at Plaza Extra-East. He does stipulate to the following: (1) He entered into a settlement agreement with regard to the Partnership's use of any of the premises used during such periods by the East Store. Said agreement references the use of whatever premises were used at the Sion Farm location -- and does not restrict its scope to just Bay 1. See, HAMD591991-HAMD592006.pdf and moreover, (2) Hamed knows that Yusuf is in possession of pages from the United Accounts Receivable (labeled "A/R") ledger during that period showing (i) no rent due for the covered period and, more importantly, (ii) no "balance forward." See e.g., FBIX339272-FBIX339301. Both of these documents are documentary evidence to refute that rent is due from the Partnership to United for Bay 5 in the amount of $271,875.00 and for Bay 8 in the amount of $323,515.63 for the period of May 1, 1994 to September 30, 2002 and $198,593.75 for the period of April 1, 2008 to May 30, 2013.

RFPD 10. For any dispute Hamed has to debts Yusuf claims are owed by the Partnership in Exhibit 6, please provide any documents or supporting evidence which refutes or contradicts these debts of the Partnership.

Response: Exhibit 6 is Yusuf's amended accounting claims, which were filed on October 30, 2017. For purposes of this request for the production of documents, Hamed is referencing section "III. Outstanding Debts of the Partnership," pages 7-12 only. Each section on those pages is addressed separately, below.

Section A. Miscellaneous Debts

Hamed objects to "Section A. Miscellaneous Debts," page 8. This section asserts that $167,114.78 must be paid by the Partnership prior to any distribution of assets. Yusuf states that as of August 31, 2017, that amount is now $69,273.51, according to John Gaffney. It is impossible for Hamed not to object to this section, as Hamed has not received any underlying, supporting documentation to validate the accuracy of the debts.

For Hamed to make a determination regarding this section and identify documents, invoices and cancelled checks for each debt need to be examined by Hamed's accountant.

Section B. Unpaid Rent for Plaza Extra East and Adjacent Bays

1. Bay 1 - Increased Rent Due Net of Rent Paid and #3 "Interest"

The first debt (and interest) listed under Section B has been made moot by Special Master Ross' March 15, 2018 Order regarding rent on Bay 1.

In this instance, Yusuf and Hamed are partners of the Partnership (Wind up Order ¶ 1.24). At the same time, Yusuf is also the principal shareholder of United, the landlord of the Partnership at Bay 1. Acting on behalf of United, Yusuf terminated the Partnership's lease at Bay 1, treated the Partnership as a holdover tenant, and raised the rent from $58,791.38 to $200,000.00 and $250,000.00. While "[a] partner does not violate a duty or obligation under this chapter or under the partnership agreement merely because the partner's conduct furthers the partner's own interest" under Title 26 V.I.C. § 74(e), Yusuf's conduct went beyond furthering his own interest. Here, Yusuf dealt with the Partnership on behalf of a party—namely, United—having an interest adverse to the Partnership, in violation of Title 26 V.I.C. § 74(b)(2). Additionally, Yusuf did not act consistently with the obligation of good faith and fair dealing, in violation of Title 26 V.I.C. § 74(d). Thus, the evidence and facts surrounding Yusuf's action through United—terminating the lease with the Partnership at Bay 1, treating the Partnership as a holdover tenant, and raising United's rent significantly higher than the agreed upon rent—demonstrates a transaction prohibited by law and tainted by a conflict of interest and self-dealing.

Based on the foregoing, the Master will deny United's motion for recovery of additional rent from the Partnership as holdover tenant at Bay 1.

Hamed v. Yusuf, et al.; SX-12-CV-370; SX-14-278; SX-14-287 Order, March 15, 2018, at pp. 6-7 (footnotes omitted).

2. Bays 5 and 8

Hamed disputes the Partnership owes United rent for Bays 5 and 8 at Plaza Extra-East. He does stipulate to the following: (1) He entered into a settlement agreement with regard to the Partnership's use of any of the premises used during such periods by the East Store. Said agreement references the use of whatever premises were used at the Sion Farm location -- and does not restrict its scope to just Bay 1. See, HAMD591991-HAMD592006.pdf and Moreover, (2) Hamed knows that Yusuf is in possession of pages from the United Accounts Receivable (labeled "A/R") ledger during that period showing

(i) no rent due for the covered period and, more importantly, (ii) no "balance forward." See e.g., FBIX339272-FBIX339301. Both of these documents are documentary evidence to refute that rent is due from the Partnership to United for Bay 5 in the amount of $271,875.00 and for Bay 8 in the amount of $323,515.63 for the period of May 1, 1994 to September 30, 2002 and $198,593.75 for the period of April 1, 2008 to May 30, 2013.

3. Interest on Rent Claims

Again, this debt has been made moot by Special Master Ross' March 15, 2018 Order regarding rent on Bay 1. Further, Hamed disputes that interest is owed on rent for Bays 5 and 8, as there is no rent owed by the Partnership, and by extension, no interest is owed either.

Section C. Reimbursement for Gross Receipts Taxes Paid by United

Hamed disputes this debt. The Partners agreed when the Partnership was formed that all gross receipts of United ascribable to Partnership operation, but not those of unrelated United businesses were to be paid from the grocery store operations. As this claim relates to United's businesses unrelated to the Plaza Extra Partnership, the Partnership does not owe United $60,586.96. Further, the time period United is claiming reimbursement for United's gross receipts is 1993-2001. Pursuant to 5 V. I.C. §31 (3), the statute of limitations for actions for debt, breach of contract and conversion of property is 6 years, making this well outside of the time period for bringing a claim. Finally, this claim is outside of the time period Judge Brady set for bringing claims against the Partnership. See Brady decision: Hamed v. Yusuf, et al.; SX-12-CV-370; SX-14-278; SX-14-287 Memorandum Opinion and Order Re Limitations on Accounting, July 21, 2017.

Section D. Black Book Balance Owed United

Hamed disputes this debt. First, the documentary evidence provided by Yusuf is dated in 1993-1994. Pursuant to 5 V. I.C. §31 (3), the statute of limitations for actions for debt, breach of contract and conversion of property is 6 years, making this well outside of the time period for bringing a claim. Further, the documentary evidence Yusuf provided is merely a couple of pages out of a so-called black book. It is impossible to say definitively that the Partnership owes this amount to United, because all of the records of the Partnership are not available from 1993 forward. This alleged debt could have been paid years ago, but the documentary evidence no longer exists. Even Yusuf's own accounting expert, BDO, asserted in its report that that "records were kept in an informal manner" and "accounting records and/or documents provided to us for the periods prior to 2003 are incomplete." BDO's September 30, 2016 Report, pages 2, 22. Finally, this claim is outside of the time period Judge Brady set for bringing claims against the Partnership. See Brady decision: Hamed v. Yusuf, et al.; SX-12-CV-370; SX-14-278; SX-14-287 Memorandum Opinion and Order Re Limitations on Accounting, July 21, 2017.

Section E. Additional Ledger Balances Due to United

Hamed disputes this debt. First, the documentary evidence provided by Yusuf is dated in 1994, 1995 and 1998. Pursuant to 5 V. I.C. §31 (3), the statute of limitations for actions for debt, breach of contract and conversion of property is 6 years, making this well outside of the time period for bringing a claim. Further, the documentary evidence Yusuf provided is merely a couple of pages out of a ledger, the entire ledger was not even produced. It is impossible to say definitively that the Partnership owes this amount to United, because all of the records of the Partnership are not available from 1993 forward. This alleged debt could have been paid years ago, but the documentary evidence no longer exists. Even Yusuf's own accounting expert, BDO, asserted in its report that "records were kept in an informal manner" and "accounting records and/or documents provided to us for the periods prior to 2003 are incomplete." BDO's September 30, 2016 Report, pages 2, 22. Finally, this claim is outside of the time period Judge Brady set for bringing claims against the Partnership. See Brady decision: Hamed v. Yusuf, et al.; SX-12-CV-370; SX-14-278; SX-14-287 Memorandum Opinion and Order Re Limitations on Accounting, July 21, 2017.

Section F. Water Revenue Re Plaza Extra-East

Hamed disputes this debt. Yusuf contends that from April 1, 2004, all revenue from the sale of water that was collected by Plaza Extra-East was to be paid to United. The water sales actually did not belong to United, but to the Partnership.

A little background is in order. When the Partnership purchased the one-acre property at Plaza Extra-East, it also built, with Partnership funds, a 400,000 to 450,000 gallon cistern on the property. Additionally, one or two water wells also were used to fill the cistern. This was during the 1990s. At that time, there was a water shortage on island, WAPA had difficulty consistently providing water and, other than WAPA, there really weren't other companies selling water. The Partnership filled this gap by selling water, starting approximately in 1994. Yusuf is correct that during 1994-2004, the proceeds from the sale of the water went to charity (half to Mr. Yusuf's choice of charity and the other half to Mr. Hamed's choice of charity) and to pay the expenses of the water generation and delivery. At its peak, in the 1990s, 10 or more trucks a day, each with a capacity of about 30,000 gallons, delivered water to St. Croix residents.

After April 1, 2004, the funds generated from the enterprise went to the Partnership, rather than to charity. The sale of water dropped off quite dramatically for the Partnership in the 2000s. Competitors, such as Marcos and others, entered the market. To get a sense of the scope, in the 2000s, the Partnership was sending out one or two trucks a day to deliver water, rather than the previous 10 or more trucks.

Eventually, Yusuf Yusuf was in charge of monitoring the water sales. For a time, water sales were recorded on hand written receipts, but there weren't any controls to ensure that the vendors did not take more water than they were billed. Wally Hamed then recommended, and Yusuf Yusuf implemented, a key being programmed into the register at the service desk to record the sales of water.

Hamed objects to this blatant claim by Yusuf & United for a number of reasons. First, neither United nor Yusuf has provided any document memorializing this so-called agreement between the Partnership and United because one does not exist. Next, Yusuf picks two years of sales, 1997 and 1998, and extrapolates those two years of sales into an average of $5,291.66 per month and applies that monthly figure to every month from April 1, 2004 through February 28, 2015. As is explained by the chronology, water sales dropped off dramatically in the 2000s, so of course Yusuf picks two years of sales during the most profitable years. Third, Yusuf does not provide any documentation to support the sales for 1997 and 1998, nor does he provide any documentation to support water sales from April 1, 2004 through February 28, 2015, even though both paper copy receipts and information from the register could be generated to show actual sales. Fourth, and perhaps most galling, United doesn't have any right to the water, as it is Partnership water, so this really isn't money United is entitled. Finally, this leads to Hamed's belief that this is another example of what Special Master Ross described as "a transaction prohibited by law and tainted by a conflict of interest and self-dealing," when discussing the inflated rents United tried to collect on Bay 1. Yusuf is not fulfilling his fiduciary duty to the Partnership and instead is trying to loot the Partnership for his corporation, United.

Section G. Unreimbursed Transfers to Plaza Extra from United's Tenant Account

Hamed disputes this debt. First, the documentary evidence provided by Yusuf is dated 1996. Pursuant to 5 V. I.C. §31 (3), the statute of limitations for actions for debt, breach of contract and conversion of property is 6 years, making this well outside of the time period for bringing a claim. Further, the documentary evidence Yusuf provided merely are journal entries from United's tenant account. It is impossible to say definitively that the Partnership owes this amount to United, because all of the records of the Partnership are not available from 1993 forward. This alleged debt could have been paid years ago, but the documentary evidence no longer exists. Even Yusuf's own accounting expert, BDO, asserted in its report that "records were kept in an informal manner" and "accounting records and/or documents provided to us for the periods prior to 2003 are incomplete." BDO's September 30, 2016 Report, pages 2, 22. Finally, this claim is outside of the time period Judge Brady set for bringing claims against the Partnership. See Brady decision: Hamed v. Yusuf, et al.; SX-12-CV-370; SX-14-278; SX-14-287 Memorandum Opinion and Order Re Limitations on Accounting, July 21, 2017.

RFPD 11. As to the accounts listed in Exhibit 7 which was Exhibit K to Yusuf's Claims, please produce copies of any and all statements for the period from September 17, 2006 to date.

Response: Object. This request is objected to as being beyond the scope of the current accounting process, as it involves foreign properties. Subject to that objection, Hamed states the following:

Arab Bank, Account No. 9020-415410-700 (JOD) – This was Mohammad Hamed's bank account.

Arab Bank, Account No. 9020-415410-500 (JOD) – This was Mohammad Hamed's bank account.

Arab Bank, Account No. 9020-415410-510 (USD) – This was Mohammad Hamed's bank account.

Arab Bank, Account No. 9020-415410-570 (ILS) – This was Mohammad Hamed's bank account.

Arab Bank, Nablus Branch, Account No. 9020-415410-710 (USD) – This was Mohammad Hamed's bank account.

Cairo Aman Bank, Account No. 001 0001629 012123 833 (JOD) – This was Mohammad Hamed's bank account.

Cairo Aman Bank, Account No. 001 0001629 03 2123 833 (USD) – This was Mohammad Hamed's bank account.

Cairo Aman Bank, Account No. 02501171878 00 (USD) – This account is in Wally Hamed's name. However, this account was used in the money laundering scheme for the Plaza Extra stores that was the subject of the 2001 FBI raid and on the stores and the subsequent criminal case and conviction of United Corporation. Wally Hamed does not have these account statements, as Fathi Yusuf had them sent to himself at the Plaza Extra-Tutu store. Fathi Yusuf is in the best position to provide any statements for the period from September 17, 2006 to date.

Banque Francaise Commerciale, Account No. 40-60-63878-90 – This account is in Wally Hamed's name. However, this account was used in the money laundering scheme for the Plaza Extra stores that was the subject of the 2001 FBI raid and on the stores and the subsequent criminal case. Wally Hamed does not have these account statements, as Fathi Yusuf had them sent to his relative, Isam Yousuf, on Sint-Maarten. There is a document that was gathered by the FBI, indicating that this account was closed sometime in 2002. See, HAMD204104-HAMD204104.

Banque Francaise Commerciale, Account No. 40-60-63878-91 – This account is in Wally Hamed's name. However, this account was used in the money laundering scheme for the Plaza Extra stores that was the subject of the 2001 FBI raid and on the stores and the subsequent criminal case. Wally Hamed does not have these account statements, as Fathi Yusuf had them sent to his relative, Isam Yousuf, on Sint-Maarten. Fathi Yusuf is in the best position to provide any statements for the period from September 17, 2006 to date.

RFPD 12. Produce all documents identified in your responses to the Requests to Produce contemporaneously served on you.

Response: Object. Incomprehensible.

RFPD 13. Produce all documents relating to Hamed Claim No. 2.

Response: Claim H-2 has been fully briefed and will be determined based on those briefs, thus, no discovery remains. However, Hamed's knowledge, positions and evidence have been fully set forth in the Motion (12/20/2017) and Reply (1/17/2017) as well as in the Amended Complaint (10/19/2012) and the Proposed Findings submitted in the PI motion process (2/27/2013). See also, Hamed's response to Yusuf's RFPD 13. Subject to that:

This litigation began in 2012 when Fathi and Mike Yusuf unilaterally took $2,784,706.25 from a partnership account and transferred it to an account to which the Hameds did not have access. This was the main issue in Hamed's 2012 complaint -- and the central issue during the early portion of this case. Because Yusuf was claiming that Hamed had no interest in the Plaza Extra Stores, unilaterally withdrawing $2.7 million from the partnership account and trying to have the police remove the Hameds from the stores, Judge Brady granted a full evidentiary TRO hearing which stretched to two days -- January 25th and 31st, 2013.

Three months later, the Court ruled for Hamed on the matter. (See the Court's critical Memorandum of April 25, 2013. Hamed v. Yusuf, 58 V.I. 117, 2013 WL 1846506 (V.I. Super. April 25, 2013)). The Court stated at paragraphs 35 and 36:

On the first hearing day, Mahar Yusuf, President of United. Corporation testified under oath that he used the $2,784,706.25 withdrawn from the Plaza Extra operating account to buy three properties on St. Croix in the name of United. On the second hearing day, Mahar Yusuf, contradicted his prior testimony and admitted that those withdrawn funds had actually been used to invest in businesses not owned by United. . . . (Emphasis added.)

Id. at *10. And, further, at footnote 9, at *19:

With regard to the August 2012 diversion of more than $2.7 million by Mahar Yusuf, president of United, to accounts inaccessible to Plaintiff, a real concern exists that continuing diversions will not be traceable as the Plaza Extra store have had no system of internal controls in existence and, to date accounting for the businesses is not completed beyond June 2012....

There is no way that Yusuf can now alter the Court's decision on this matter -- having since conceded that there was a Yusuf/Hamed partnership that owned the Plaza Extra Stores, and Judge Brady having entered summary judgment. Simply put, Yusuf tried to steal the Plaza Extra Stores, claim that Hamed was just an illiterate employee, give him a small "annuity" rather than his 50%, and throw the Hameds out -- and he began all of this by baldly stealing the $2.7 million.

However, Yusuf (as the Liquidating Partner) has delayed having this declared a valid claim by repeatedly saying he too has claims that must be heard as well. That may be the case, and he may or may not prove those other claims, but as there is no doubt that the Yusufs took the money and (as Judge Brady's memorandum makes clear) that $2.7 million plus interest is a valid claim and must be returned to the Partnership.

The original amount of the claim was $2,784,706.25. Additionally, Hamed seeks $1,305,988 in statutory interest at 9% from August 15, 2012, the date of the Plaza Extra check written to the United Corporation (unilateral Partnership withdrawal).

Please see Attachment A for a listing of documents responsive to this request.

RFPD 14. Produce all documents relating to Hamed Claim No. 13.

Response: H-13 relates to Hamed's payment of taxes during criminal case (United States v Yusuf, US District Court of the Virgin Islands, Division of St. Croix, 1:05-cr-15) where the Partnership did not pay for Waleed ("Wally") and Waheed's ("Willie") 2002-2012 taxes, but the Partnership did pay for Yusuf and his children's 2002-2012 taxes. Hamed has stated his positions in his motion on this claim. In addition, the following chronology supports Hamed's contention:

On May 24, 2013, the Virgin Islands Bureau of Internal Revenue ("VIBIR") sent a letter to Fathi Yusuf's personal attorney, Nizar DeWood, stating that "United and Related entities" owed the government $6,586,132.00 in taxes for 2002-2012. On June 14, 2013, Maggie Doherty, US Marshal's Service, authorized the release of $6,586,132.00 from the Partnership Banco Popular Securities account for tax payments to VIBIR (during the course of the criminal case involving United, Fathi, Maher and Yusuf Yusuf and Waleed and Waheed Hamed, the US Marshal's Service had to authorize any release of funds in excess of a certain amount from the Partnership's banking and investment accounts). The VIBIR was paid and the Hameds thought that this amount covered their parents' taxes.

On June 20, 2013, Maggie Doherty, US Marshal's Service, authorized the release of $315,747.00 from the Partnership Banco Popular Securities account for the estimated income tax liabilities for both Waleed and Waheed Hamed (the tax liability for both men subsequently was revised to $129,546.00 for Wally and $3,582.00 for Willie). As was the requirement following Judge Brady's preliminary injunction order on April 25, 2013, one Hamed and one Yusuf had to sign a check jointly from the Partnership accounts before any amount could be distributed. Fathi Yusuf refused to sign the check written to pay Wally and Willie's taxes for 2002-2012.

On June 29, 2012 [sic], Fathi Yusuf's personal attorney, Joseph DiRuzzo, claimed in a letter to Tamika M. Archer, Esq., VI Office of the Attorney General, Tamarah Parson-Small, Esq., VIBIR, and Lori Hendrickson, Esq., DOJ, that the $6.5 million tax payment agreed to during a mediation on the subject was not to cover Mohammad Hamed or his sons:

This is a material breach of the agreement that was reached in the mediation conducted before Judge Barnard. The Parties to the mediation explicitly agreed that the $6.5M tendered was to satisfy only the Yusuf family members' tax liabilities for the years 2002 - 2010 and not for any tax liability of Mohammad Hamed (and by extension any of the Hamed family members). We made clear that this term was non-negotiable. Everyone present agreed that Mohammed Hamed was not to be covered and under no circumstances would any portion of the $6.5M be credited/transferred to the tax account or to satisfy any tax liability of another taxpayer (and in particular Mohammad Hamed or his family members).

See HAMD594355-HAMD594356.pdf at p. HAMD594356. Attorney DiRuzzo then threatened to recoup the $6.5 million payment from the government unless the VIRIB confirmed that the payment applied only to Yusuf and his children's taxes:

In order to cure the breach we demand (i) that the VIBIR retract the June 20th letters issued to Mohammad Hamed (and confirm in writing its withdrawal to us) and (ii) that the VIBIR issue us a letter confirming that the $6.5M paid was used to satisfy only the tax liabilities of the Yusuf family members (as shareholders of United Corporation, as a Subchapter S-Corp under the Internal Revenue Code) and not to satisfy any tax liability of Mohammad Hamed or any other taxpayer (including but not limited to other Hamed family members).

If the VIBIR does not cure this breach immediately we will seek to recoup the $6.5M that was tendered as it was obtained either (i) by mutual mistake, (ii) in bad faith, or (iii) by fraud. Id.

On July 1, 2013, concerned that the VIBIR would lose the $6.5 million tax payment, Claudette Watson-Anderson, CPA, VIBIR, sent a letter to Attorney DiRuzzo stating,

In response to your letter dated June 29, 2013, the Bureau hereby acknowledges that full payment of tax owed, in the amount of $6,586,132, has been applied to the returns filed for the following taxpayers only:

Fathi & Fawzia Yusuf

Yusuf & Ala Yusuf

Zeyad Yusuf

Maher & Najat Yusuf

Nejah Yusuf

Zayed Yusuf

See HAMD594305-HAMD594305.pdf.

Also, on July 1, 2013, Lori Hendrickson, U.S. Department of Justice, confirmed that the $6.5 million tax payment was not applicable to the Hamed family.

I am in receipt of your letter dated June 29, 2013 and the declaration of Waleed Hamed dated June 27, 2013. The statements from the declaration you quoted in your letter are not based on any representations or promises made by representatives of the Virgin Islands Bureau of Internal Revenue (VIBIR) or the United States. As we all agreed, the $6,586,132 was applied only to members of the Yusuf family for taxes owed for 2002 through 2010. This is confirmed, as you requested, in the attached letter dated July 1, 2013 signed by the Director of the VIBIR. No one from the named family received any credit or benefit from that payment.

See, HAMD594304-HAMD594304.pdf.

On July 16, 2013, Lori Hendrickson, DOJ, confirmed to the court in the criminal tax case (United States v Yusuf, US District Court of the Virgin Islands, Division of St. Croix, 1:05-cr-15) that all members of the Yusuf family who were United shareholders (including those children who did not work in the Plaza Extra stores), had their taxes paid by the Partnership, and further, if those shareholders owed for other income unrelated to Plaza Extra, such as income from investments, then the Partnership paid those taxes too.

MS. HENDRICKSON: Yes, to clarify. I agree with Mr. Andreozzi that during those

22 years [of the criminal case] the payments were made, based on copies
23 of the requests for payment government sought
24 and approved, and let the money be released, 25 that it was money to pay the tax obligations of

p. 68

1 the Yusuf family members who were listed as 2 shareholders in the record of the VIBIR. And 3 there was other income on some of their 4 returns. So, if they had other investments and 5 things like that. So I think that is a fair
6 representation to say United paid for other
7 taxes that the individual shareholders owed on 8 top of the flow through based on United's
9 operations.

* * *

23 So to the extent there was additional money
24 paid, and I reviewed the tax returns, I agree 25 with Mr. Andreozzi's point, but I think it has

p. 69

1 no impact on the plea agreement itself, since
2 the government's purpose was to get all the 3 income reported and the taxes paid for the 4 income of Plaza Extra. And with the payment of 5 $6.5 million, that has occurred.

6 THE COURT: If that included other than 7 the flow through, so be it?

8 MS. HENDRICKSON: Yes.

p. 123

17 The fact that the United won't pay for the 18 Hameds, that is a separate issue. In February 19 of 2011, yes, they paid for everyone's. Now, 20 in June, July of 2013, United does not agree to 21 pay, but the Hameds, as taxpayers, are legally
22 obligated to report income and pay taxes
23 whether or not they're part of a criminal case. (Emphasis added.)
24

On December 9, 2013, Willie Hamed wrote a check for $3,582.00 out of his personal Banco Popular account to the VIRIB for his 2002-2012 taxes. See, JVZ-000868-JVZ-001730.pdf at p. JVZ-001174.

On March 30, 2014, Wally Hamed wrote a check for $129,546.00 out of his personal Banco Popular account to the VIRIB for his 2002-2012. See, JVZ-000868-JVZ-001730.pdf at p. JVZ-001172.

On September 28, 2016, Hamed's CPA reviewed the general ledgers from 2012 to present provided by John Gaffney for any reimbursements to Waleed and Waheed for these tax payments or payments of the taxes made by the Partnership directly to VIBIR for the same period. None were found. See, JVZ-000001-JVZ-000867.pdf at p. JVZ-000039.

Thus, Fathi Yusuf authorized the Partnership to pay the 2002-2012 taxes for himself, his wife, his three children who worked in the Plaza Extra stores and his two children who were shareholders of the United Corporation, but did not work for Plaza Extra. Further, Fathi Yusuf blocked the Partnership's payment of Wally and Willie Hamed's 2002-2012 taxes. Clearly, this is another instance of, as Judge Ross opined in an earlier opinion about Fathi Yusuf's actions, "a transaction prohibited by law and tainted by a conflict of interest and self-dealing."

Please see Attachment A for a listing of documents responsive to this request.

RFPD 15. Produce all documents relating to Hamed Claim No. 17.

Response: H-17 relates to Hamed's payment of attorneys' fees and expenses during the criminal case (United States v Yusuf, US District Court of the Virgin Islands, Division of St. Croix, 1:05-cr-15). For a period of time, all of the defense attorneys worked together under a Joint Defense Agreement to represent the following: United Corporation, Fathi, Maher ("Mike"), and Nejeh Yusuf and Waleed ("Wally") and Waheed ("Willie") Hamed.

One feature of the Joint Defense Agreement concerned the payment of fees. A retainer (funded by Partnership bank accounts) for attorneys' fees and expenses for all of the defendants was established at the law firm of Andreozzi, Bluestein LLP and Richardson Patrick Westbrook & Brickman, LLC, as the attorneys worked together for all of the defendants to defend the case. Replenishment and draws from the retainer were required approval of the Court. See, e.g., HAMD202558-HAMD202562.pdf,

The Joint Defense Agreement expired on September 19, 2012 when Attorney Joseph DiRuzzo was retained to represent Fathi Yusuf. Fathi Yusuf is now refusing to allow the Partnership to pay attorneys' fees and expenses for attorneys' fees that were incurred prior to September 19, 2012, which is the subject of H-17. The following chronology supports Hamed's contention:

As noted, under the Joint Defense Agreement in the criminal case, United States v Yusuf, attorneys' fees and expenses were not split or attributed to any individual defendant, "rather all defense counsel worked together on behalf of all of the represented defendants in a joint effort to defend the case," according to the March 2, 2017 declaration of Gordon C. Rhea, one of the attorneys party to the Joint Defense Agreement:

I, GORDON C. RHEA, declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 1746, as follows:

3. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein.
2. I am an attorney licensed to practice law in the U.S. Virgin Islands.
3. I was one of the defense lawyers in the criminal action filed by the United States of America in the District Court of the Virgin Islands (St. Thomas Division), Docket No, 1:05-cr-00015, against the following defendants:
FATHI YUSUF MOHAMAD YUSUF, aka Fathi Yusuf
WALEED MOHAMMAD HAMED, aka Wally Hamed
WAHEED MOHAMMAD HAMED, aka Willie Hamed
MAHER FATHI YUSUF, aka Mike Yusuf
NEJEH FATHI YUSUF,
ISAM YUSUF, and
UNITED CORPORATION
4. All of the defendants in that criminal case, except for Isam Yousef who was never apprehended, were represented jointly by multiple counsel, including myself, under a Joint Defense Agreement.
5. Pursuant to the Joint Defense Agreement, all defense counsel worked together on behalf of all of the represented defendants in a joint effort to defend the case.
6. A plea agreement was reached in December of 2010 . . . , with a modification made thereafter in early 2011. . . . As noted therein, the only defendant who pled guilty was United Corporation, as the charges were dismissed against all of the other represented defendants.

7. The Joint Defense Agreement then continued during the sentencing phase of the case (to primarily address the tax issues related to the Plea) until September 19, 2012, when the Joint Defense Agreement was terminated.

8. Under the Joint Defense Agreement;

a. All legal and accounting work was done jointly on behalf of all represented defendants in an effort to defend all of them at the same time.

b. Bills for attorneys' fees and expenses reflected the work of counsel done for all defendants without allocating specific items to individual defendants.

c. Simply because a bill was directed to a specific defendant did not reflect their individual personal obligation, as the bills were the joint obligation of all defendants while the Joint Defense Agreement was in place.

d. All defendants were all aware of this fact, as applications for payment of the bills submitted under Joint Defense Agreement had to be made to the United States Attorney, who would then have to authorize funds to pay these bills from the defendants' bank accounts which had been frozen by court order.

e. Until the Joint Defense Agreement was terminated all legal bills were paid from a United Plaza Extra account.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

(See, Exhibit 44 to the March 6, 2017 hearing before Judge Brady in this case, HAMD641485-HAMD642240.pdf)

On September 19, 2012, Attorney Gordon Rhea sent an email to all of the attorneys party to the Joint Defense Agreement and Attorney Joesph DiRuzzo, stating:

It is with sadness that I must announce the termination of the joint defense team that we assembled in the early stages of the Federal criminal case against United Corporation, the Yusufs, and the Hameds. Working in harmony toward a common purpose, we brought a difficult case to a remarkably successful conclusion, resulting in the dismissal of all charges against all individuals. The joint defense agreement was formed to advance the common interests of all defendants in the criminal matter; sadly, it no longer appears capable of discharging that function.

Recent events have eroded the once-harmonious relationship among our clients, who are now divided into camps that are at serious odds with one another. The Hamed and Yusuf families are engaged in a bitter civil dispute, each has retained attorneys to pursue their civil disagreements, and civil litigation is in train. United Corporation has directed attorneys Alkon and Cole, who skillfully represented that entity during the active phase of the criminal case, to withdraw, and has replaced them with an attorney who represents the Yusuf family interests and who has acted unilaterally by making overtures to the Federal prosecutor without consulting the defense team. In addition, the Yusufs have directed United not to pay the fees of various defense team members who represent Hameds, contrary to the protocol followed in the past.

See, HAMD201592-HAMD201593.pdf at p. HAMD201592 (Emphasis added).

On April 17, 2004, Judge Barnard, Magistrate, United States v Yusuf, US District Court of the Virgin Islands, Division of St. Croix, 1:05-cr-15, held that the attorneys' fees and expenses reimbursement by Hamed was covered under the Joint Defense Agreement and should be paid by Partnership funds:

At the mediation counsel advised that they had represented the defendant, as well as dismissed defendants, pursuant to a joint defense agreement which had been negotiated early in the litigation.

Because of a substitution of counsel and divergence in trial strategy the Joint Defense Agreement was concluded on September 19, 2012. At the close of the mediation the attorneys' billing statements were requested for in camera review. After a thorough review of the invoices presented by counsel and the retained accounting experts, the mediator concluded that because of the termination of the Joint Defense Agreement the invoices should be resubmitted in camera for consideration of work performed prior to September 19, 2012.

Invoices were received from the Law Offices of Pamela Lynn Colon, LLC., Gordon C. Rhea, P.C., Andreozzi, Bluestein, Fickess, Muhlbauner Weber, Brown LLP, and Freed Maxick, CPA PC. Invoices were not received from Feurst, Ittleman, David, and Joseph, P.L. nor from Nizar Dewood, Esq. The subject invoices were reviewed in camera and the work performed by counsel and the accountants was in furtherance of the object of the Joint Defense Agreement. The invoices submitted are approved as follows:

Pamela Lynn Colon, LLC $46,393.95
Gordon C. Rhea, PC. 16,737.90
Andreozzi, Bluestein LLP 118,418.57
Freed Maxick CPA, PC 151,350.00

Accordingly, the sum of $332,900.42 is directed to be released for the restrained assets of the defendant to the Escrow Account of Andreozzi, Bluestein, in accordance with prior protocol established by Judge Raymond Finch, for distribution to counsel and experts in the sums approved pursuant to the Joint Defense Agreement.

See, HAMD599941-HAMD599944.pdf at pp. HAMD599941-HAMD599942.

On August 17, 2014, Mohammad Hamed paid the following out of his personal Banco Popular checking account: Pamela L. Colon, Esq., $46,393.95, Gordon C. Rhea, Esq., $16,737.90, Andreozzi, Bluestein LLP, $118,418.57 and Freed Maxicx, CPA, PL, $151,350.00. These fees were incurred for work completed prior to the expiration of the Joint Defense Agreement on September 19, 2012. See, JVZ-000868-JVZ-001730.pdf at p. JVZ-001211-JVZ001214.

Yusuf now is trying to contend that this was not the case and each defendant was required to pay his own individual attorney during the course of the Joint Defense Agreement. This is an absurd contention on Yusuf's part. Carried to its extreme, it would mean that the Yusuf defendants and the United Corporation would only pay $237,691.00 or 5% of the total cost of attorneys' fees and expenses, while Hamed would pay a whopping $4,121,561.00 or 95% of the total. See, HAMD641485-HAMD642240.pdf, p. HAMD642214. Hamed disputes this contention and provides the March 2, 2017 declaration of Attorney Gordon Rhea and Judge Barnard's April 17, 2014 Order as support.

Hamed's CPA also provided John Gaffney a query dated February 15, 2016 asking whether these fees were reimbursed. Hamed's CPA reviewed the general ledgers from 2012 to present provided by John Gaffney for any reimbursements to Waleed for these payments or payments made by the Partnership directly to Waleed Hamed for the same period. None were found. See, JVZ-000001-JVZ-000867.pdf at p. JVZ-000044-45.

RFPD 16. Produce all documents relating to Hamed Claim No. 129.

Response: Partnership funds were withdrawn by Fathi Yusuf. From those funds, he and his wife Fawzia gave Shawn Hamed $1.5 million and Mafi Hamed $1.5 million. Their affidavits clearly state that the amounts were gifts to Mafi and Shawn Hamed. Nothing in the affidavits suggest that the gifts are recoverable as "loans," came from the Partnership rather than Yusuf, or were "distributions" as to both families. Further, there are no other writings documenting that this was an equal distribution between Hamed and Yusuf. This was solely a Yusuf withdrawal. Moreover, in the Hoda Hamed divorce proceedings she describes these as her father's or her property for these same reasons. Because of the divorce claim that was made in 2016, Hamed is making a claim here to return the unequal withdrawal.

Additionally, Fathi Yusuf withdrew an additional $1 million for himself at the same time the $3 million in gifts was drawn. Mr. Yusuf kept that money for his own purposes and there was no corresponding $1 million withdrawal for Hamed. See, HAMD248055-HAMD248057.pdf, HAMD200057-HAMD200057.pdf.

Documents relating to this claim include:

- July 1, 2011 letters from Fathi and Fawzia Yusuf gifting Mufeed and Shawn Hamed $1.5 million each.
- Checks and bank statements regarding the July 1, 2011 gift from Fathi and Fawzi Yusuf to Mufeed and Shawn Hamed.
- August 12, 2011 pleading, Defendants' Motion for Release of Funds from United Corporation to the Shareholders of United Corporation, United States v Yusuf, US District Court of the Virgin Islands, Division of St. Croix, 1:05-cr-15.

Please see Attachment A for a listing of documents responsive to this request.

RFPD 17. Produce all documents relating to Hamed Claim No. 145.

Response: H-145 relates to the way the Virgin Islands Water and Power Authority ("WAPA") deposits paid by the Partnership in 1993, 1994, 1999 and 2000 were distributed after the Partnership was dissolved. Hamed contends that the deposits should have been split 50/50 and returned to each Partner. This did not happen and an unequal amount, favorable to Fathi Yusuf and United the Corporation, was distributed.

The WAPA deposit and interest for Plaza Extra-East totaled $110,842.00, Plaza Extra-West totaled $127,037.03 and Plaza Extra-Tutu totaled $34,693.06, for a grand total of $272,572.09 or $136,286.05 per partner. See, YUSF238279-YUSF238287.pdf.

According to John Gaffney's May 17, 2016 explanation, the deposits were divided as follows:

The disposition of deposits in each location was as follows:

1. Plaza East - since there was no refund or other event and since the deposits are in favor of United Corporation without change, the balance was treated as a capital distribution.
2. Plaza West - since the deposits are in the name of Plessen Enterprises, inc. which is owned 50/50 consistent with Plaza ownership, these deposits were distributed to the partners consistent with the elimination of inter-company debt on 12/31/14. This adjustment was made after recognizing the accrued interest in the partnership.
3. Plaza STT - the deposits and accrued interest were offset against the final WAPA invoice.

I am unable to locate a copy of the final WAOA [sic] invoice in STT.

See, YUSF238182-YUSF238184.pdf at p. YUSF238279.

John Gaffney further stated that the $34,693.06 deposit for Plaza Extra-Tutu was credited against the last bill. Unfortunately, it is unclear how much of the last bill should be attributed to the Partnership and how much should be attributed to Hamed, who purchased the store on May 1, 2015. Because John Gaffney cannot locate the final WAPA bill, the proceeds from the deposit should be split equally between the partners.

Also, it is unclear what the "inter-company" debt on 12/31/14 being eliminated was and whether it was appropriate. Absent more information on exactly what this debt was, Hamed does not agree that the inter-company debt that was eliminated was appropriate.

Hamed's CPAs also took issue with this division:

Opinion as to the Issue Identified:

We noted adjustments had been made on East & West to deposit amounts recorded in the accounting records to reflect balances at 12/31/14. The adjustment made to STT accounting records did not agree with the statements provided by WAPA.

We disagree, however, that the treatment of the deposits was accurate. All deposits were made with Partnership funds and the subsequent interest payments are also considered Partnership funds. Because the deposits and interest payments are Partnership funds, there is no justification for returning Plaza Extra East's deposit and interest to the United Corporation. Similarly, there is no justification for attributing Plaza Extra West's deposit and interest to the "elimination of inter-company debt on 12/31/14" for Plessen Enterprises, Inc. - an unexplained phrase that has no justification or documentation to support it. The St. Thomas store's treatment of the deposit and interest is also faulty. The amount should have been returned to the Partnership and not applied to the St. Thomas WAPA bill. As John Gaffney cannot find a copy of the WAPA invoice that the deposit and interest were allegedly applied against, this treatment in the general ledger cannot be substantiated. Further, there is no evidence of payment, receipt or refund of WAPA deposits. . . . See, JVZ-000001-JVZ-000867.pdf at p. JVZ-000030.

Please see Attachment A for a listing of documents responsive to this request.

RFPD 18. Produce all documents relating to Hamed Claim No. 154.

Response: H-154 relates to Hamed's payment of attorneys' fees and expenses during the criminal case (United States v Yusuf, US District Court of the Virgin Islands, Division of St. Croix, 1:05-cr-15) from January 1, 2012 to April 16, 2015.

The defendants have repeatedly asserted that Fathi Yusuf was in charge of everything. This also extends to the extensive money laundering scheme that Mr. Yusuf created and directed. Instead of protecting the Partnership, Mr. Yusuf instructed his son "Maher" Mike Yusuf and Nejeah Yusuf, as well as Waleed "Wally" and Waheed "Willie" Yusuf to engage in an enterprise taking Partnership funds off island and depositing those funds in various foreign bank accounts. Mike Yusuf, in turn, instructed his sister Hoda to take the Partnership cash he had given her and purchase cashier's checks. Fathi Yusuf also enlisted his relatives in Jordan (his brother and niece) and St. Maarten (his nephew and niece) to launder money for him.

An FBI Interview demonstrates that Fathi Yusuf hid the actual amount of money generated at the Plaza Extra stores by instructing United's comptroller, John Irvin, to base sales on the stores' deposits, not on its actual sales:

IRVIN was told by FATHI YUSUF that store sales would be based on deposits. IRVIN said that normal accounting procedures allow accountants to conduct internal audits. IRVIN advised that YUSUF told him that internal audits were being handled and to simply continue to use deposits to calculate sales. IRVIN said that YUSUF told him this early on and that YUSUF was very emphatic. IRVIN never revisited the subject of sales with YUSUF and continued to base sales on daily deposits. (See, HAMD639822-HAMD639830.pdf at p. HAMD639823).

Fathi Yusuf also artificially manufactured the year-end inventory for each store at $3 million:

IRVIN was shown copies of February and March of 1999 gross receipts sales tax figures. IRVIN stated that he had a discussion with FATHI YUSUF concerning cost of goods sold. YUSUF told IRVIN that it was not possible to determine actual numbers for cost of goods sold. Per YUSUF'S instructions, IRVIN was told to determine cost of goods sold in whatever manner would reflect approximately $3 million in year ending inventory for each store. IRVIN also had conversations with WILLIE HAMED concerning cost of goods sold and what the average markup on merchandise was.

IRVIN said that HAMED was not specific but understood that YUSUF wanted ending inventory to be around $3 million. IRVIN advised that to determine cost of goods sold he would use a formula reflecting a 42% markup, or more often than not, simply plug in numbers so the $3 million number would be met. IRVIN stated that the reason YUSUF wanted the number for inventory to be around $3 million for each store was to show a lower net income. If taxable income was too high, YUSUF would tell IRVIN to adjust cost of goods sold to show a decrease in the companies profit. IRVIN stated YUSUF normally had him adjust the numbers presented to him which reflected cost of goods sold. (See, HAMD639822-HAMD639830.pdf at p. HAMD639823)

Additionally, Fathi Yusuf artificially lowered the amount of sales at Plaza Extra Tutu.

IRVIN advised that the rent paid to TUTU PARK MALL was based partly on sales. When the rent was due, YUSUF would go into his office and return to give IRVIN the numbers to be used to pay the portion of the rent that was based on sales. (See, HAMD639822-HAMD639830.pdf at p. HAMD639828)

Irwin's account and Fathi Yusuf's own multiple filings here demonstrate that he, personally, ran the operation and directed the individuals. These activities led the federal government to indict the United Corporation, Fathi, Mike and Nejeih Yusuf and Wally and Willie Hamed for money laundering. Fathi Yusuf was in charge. The losses include attorneys' fees and expenses paid in defense of the money laundering charges.

Please see Attachment A for a listing of documents responsive to this request.

RFPD 19. Produce all documents relating to Hamed Claim No. 162.

Response: H-162 relates to claims based on monitoring reports prepared by contractors for the federal government between 2006-2012. Hamed is looking for instances when Yusuf expended Partnership funds for non-Partnership expenses. Hamed has discovery requests to obtain these monitoring reports, but no additional reports were supplied. A motion to compel is necessary. Once the monitoring reports have been obtained, this request for production of documents will be updated.

RFPD 20. Produce all documents relating to Hamed Claim No. 163.

Response: H-163 relates to the loss of assets due to wrongful dissolution, including the attorneys' fees Hamed has had to expend to ensure that Hamed's status as a partner was secure. As stated regarding the $2.7 million, Yusuf, stole funds, made claims, attempted to get the Hameds thrown out by the police, obtained criminal prosecution by lying to the police, and otherwise caused the wrongful dissolution of the partnership.

The central fact of a partnership is that it is an agreement between two or more persons "to carry on as co-owners a business for profit formed under section 22 of this chapter, predecessor law, or comparable law of another jurisdiction." 26 V.I.C. § 2. On November 7, 2014, this Court declared that a partnership has existed between Hamed and Yusuf since 1986.

It is undisputed and a matter of record that in 2012, Yusuf declared in pleadings before this Court that no partnership existed and thereby attempted to take the ongoing businesses for himself. His attempt to take all of the Partnership's assets has created numerous costs and losses, as described below.

As the best example of this, Yusuf's counsel stated to the V.I. Supreme Court that no such partnership existed and that all Hamed was entitled to was some sort of "annuity" to be determined by Yusuf. See Transcript of Oral Argument, Yusuf v. Hamed, S.Ct. Civ No. 2013-CV-0040 (July 9, 2013) at 7-9.

JUSTICE HODGE: -- and now its an annuity?

MR. DIRUZZO: Well, that's -- that's my best way to -- to describe or couch, which is why we characterize it as an almost uncharacteristic or uncharacterizable agreement. It almost defies your typical definitions because it is so out of the ordinary. . . .

Thus, Yusuf denied the partnership and attempted to take and run its three businesses.

A. Costs to Stop Taking of All Partnership Assets Generally

As a result, Plaintiff Hamed has had to undertake the costs of this legal action to establish the existence of the partnership. Section 602 of the Revised Uniform Partnership Act, enacted in the USVI at V.I. 26 § 122 (Partner's power to dissociate; wrongful dissociation) provides:

SECTION 602. PARTNER'S POWER TO DISSOCIATE; WRONGFUL DISSOCIATION.

- (a) A partner has the power to dissociate at any time, rightfully or wrongfully, by express will pursuant to Section 601(1).
- (b) A partner's dissociation is wrongful only if:
  - (1) it is in breach of an express provision of the partnership agreement; or
  - (2) in the case of a partnership for a definite term or particular undertaking, before the expiration of the term or the completion of the undertaking:
    - (i) the partner withdraws by express will, unless the withdrawal follows within 90 days after another partner's dissociation by death or otherwise under Section 601(6) through (10) or wrongful dissociation under this subsection;

(ii) the partner is expelled by judicial determination under Section 601(5);

(iii) the partner is dissociated by becoming a debtor in bankruptcy; or

(iv) in the case of a partner who is not an individual, trust other than a business trust, or estate, the partner is expelled or otherwise dissociated because it willfully dissolved or terminated.

(c) A partner who wrongfully dissociates is liable to the partnership and to the other partners for damages caused by the dissociation. The liability is in addition to any other obligation of the partner to the partnership or to the other partners.

The Official Comments to 602(c) state:

Comment

3. Subsection (c) provides that a wrongfully dissociating partner is liable to the partnership and to the other partners for any damages caused by the wrongful nature of the dissociation. That liability is in addition to any other obligation of the partner to the partnership or to the other partners. For example, the partner would be liable for any damage caused by breach of the partnership agreement or other misconduct. The partnership might also incur substantial expenses resulting from a partner's premature withdrawal from a term partnership, such as replacing the partner's expertise or obtaining new financing. The wrongfully dissociating partner would be liable to the partnership for those and all other expenses and damages that are causally related to the wrongful dissociation.

The most basic provision of the partnership is that Yusuf and Hamed were partners, and thus were 50% owners of all assets. Yusuf violated that and tried to take everything. (Or at least he tried to take everything minus some "annuity" he calculated was owing.)

There are no fact issues remaining about the existence of the partnership. There are no fact issues remaining as to Yusuf's absolute denial of that partnership for the year and a half it took to wring that admission out of him. There is no dispute of fact that but for Yusuf's wrongful actions, Hamed would not have incurred the costs and losses necessary to (1) recover his 50% of the assets, (2) provide access to accounts and (3) obtain a declaration. As a matter of law, there being no further issues of fact, Yusuf "is liable to the partnership and to the other partners for damages caused by the dissociation. The liability is in addition to any other obligation of the partner to the partnership or to the other partners."

B. Recovery of Fees as One Element of Damages

Beyond the fact that a successful USVI Plaintiff can recover attorney fees,<sup>17</sup> fees for RUPS litigation occasioned by the breach of the partnership agreement and for wrongful dissolution are recoverable. See, e.g., Meyer v. Christie, No. 07-2230-CM, 2009 WL 3294001, at *1 (D. Kan. Oct. 13, 2009); same on appeal Meyer v. Christie, 634 F.3d 1152, 1160–61, 2011 WL 873437 (10th Cir. 2011); State Farm Fire & Cas. Co. v. Christie, No. 10-CV-2699, 2015 WL 751808, at *3 (D. Kan. Feb. 23, 2015); Cratte v. Estabrook, No. 1 CA-CV 09-0239, 2010 WL 2773372, at *3 (Ariz. Ct. App. July 13, 2010); and Saint Alphonsus Diversified Care, Inc. v. MRI Associates, LLP, 148 Idaho 479, 489, 224 P.3d 1068, 1078, 2009 WL 5252829 (2009).

Fees for the litigation occasioned by the breach of the partnership agreement and for wrongful dissolution are not accounting damages and require a jury. See, e.g., Meyer v. Christie, No. 07-2230-CM, 2009 WL 3294001, at *1 (D. Kan. Oct. 13, 2009); same on appeal Meyer v. Christie, 634 F.3d 1152, 1160–61, 2011 WL 873437 (10th Cir. 2011); State Farm Fire & Cas. Co. v. Christie, No. 10-CV-2699, 2015 WL 751808, at *3 (D. Kan. Feb. 23, 2015); Cratte v. Estabrook, No. 1 CA-CV 09-0239, 2010 WL 2773372, at *3 (Ariz. Ct. App. July 13, 2010); and Saint Alphonsus Diversified Care, Inc. v. MRI Associates, LLP, 148 Idaho 479, 489, 224 P.3d 1068, 1078, 2009 WL 5252829 (2009).

<sup>17</sup> The claims here sound in tort. The attempt by Yusuf/United to convert all of the partnership was abject, unadulterated conversion – and additional, non-accounting monetary damages were pleaded. The Amended Complaint specifically asked, at item 7 of relief, for “[a]n award of compensatory damages against the defendants.”

Pursuant to the Rules of the Court, the supporting documents are the bills and payments for counsel -- which will be provided, and the fees determined, at the end of litigation.

C. Other Losses and Costs

Hamed, as the partner, also lost the value of:

(1) the Partnership's diminution of income, profits and time occasioned by the Yusuf taking and efforts to correct those. The supporting documents will be expert reports not yet due under the Discovery Plan.

(2) the costs of accountants and accounting experts to determine the amount that Yusuf took between 2006 and 2012. The supporting documents will be expert reports not yet due under the Discovery Plan.

(3) the costs of accountants and accounting experts to determine the amount that Yusuf took between 2012 and the end of the Partnership. The supporting documents will be expert reports not yet due under the Discovery Plan.

(4) the costs of 100% of Mr. Gaffney's fees to determine review the accounting as part of the Claims process. The supporting documents will be expert reports not yet due under the Discovery Plan.

(5) the damage to trade reputation occasioned by the Yusuf's acts and statements. The supporting documents will be expert reports not yet due under the Discovery Plan.
