DEFENDANT ST. CROIX RENAISSANCE GROUP LLLP'S MOTION FOR SEVERANCE PURSUANT TO RULE 21

The complaint filed in this case lists over 500 plaintiffs seeking damages for property damages and personal injuries from different kinds of alleged exposures (asbestos, bauxite ore, bauxite residue, etc.) that allegedly emanated for years from the former alumina processing plant located on a site now owned by the defendant, St. Croix Renaissance ("SCRG").

SCRG hereby moves pursuant to Rule 21 to dismiss this case for misjoinder of unrelated claims.

The basis for this motion is more fully set forth in the memorandum filed with this motion, which is incorporated herein by reference. For the reasons set forth therein, it is respectfully submitted that the relief sought pursuant to Rule 21 be granted, dismissing this case except for the first named plaintiff or, alternatively, severing all claims.
